WORDS
ON FAITH

by Kenneth Copeland

Your Inheritance

No matter what your circumstances, no matter how big or small your bank balance, everything you could ever need or want is already yours. It's not up in heaven waiting to be sent down to you one of these days. It's already been released into the earth. It's here right now; and it will respond to faith in God. It will respond to your believing, speaking and acting on His WORD because that's what it was originally created to do.

Ever since the beginning, this earth and all of its abundance has been on assignment to serve and prosper mankind. Everything on this planet was created for our benefit. God didn't make this earth and fill it with everything good just for His own sake. He made it with His children in mind.

God's plan has always been for His children to prosper on the earth.
Genesis 1:28

God owns all the earth's resources, including all the world's wealth.
Haggai 2:8

The devil stole those resources through sin but Jesus got them back again.
Hebrews 1:2

As a joint heir with Jesus, you too have inherited all things.
Romans 8:16-17

God doesn't just give you things to meet your needs, He gives you things to enjoy.
1 Timothy 6:17

the HUNDREDFOLD PRINCIPLE

by Jerry Savelle

Brother Copeland had been invited to speak at the Full Gospel Businessmen's Convention in Birmingham, Ala., in 1972. Before the meeting started, Brother Copeland said, "Let's you and I fly to Birmingham and spend a couple of days in prayer together before that meeting gets underway."

"God's been dealing with me about going on television, and I need the mind of Christ; I need the wisdom of God concerning this. Not only that, but God's been dealing with me about this ministry needing a bigger and faster airplane, and I need to get the wisdom of God about that as well. So let's you and I go early. We'll spend a couple of days in prayer together."

So we flew to Birmingham in Brother Copeland's little Cessna 310. We checked in to the hotel in Birmingham, and the first night he said, "I want you to meet me in my room at 6 in the morning, and we're going to pray together and just see what we hear from God regarding these things."

I was really excited because it was the first time that he had actually invited me to participate in his prayer time. I had seen him pray publicly in meetings, but I had never been invited to be in the same room with him during his private prayer time. Usually, he isolated himself during his prayer time.

Prayer Time With Kenneth Copeland

The next morning we met at 6, and he said, "Let's just begin praying in the spirit. If you get anything from God, you just go ahead and speak it out."

We started praying in the spirit. I was sitting there kind of in a corner in that hotel room, and I noticed Brother Copeland knelt down by his bed and had his notebook and his Bible out. He prayed in the spirit, and then he flipped through pages of the Bible every once in a while. I thought, That looks good. So I got down on my knees in front of the chair and prayed in the spirit and flipped through my Bible like he was doing.

He would pray in the spirit a little while, and then he'd quote a verse that he saw in the Word that pertained to the wisdom of God. For instance, in Corinthians where it says, "Jesus has been made unto us wisdom." Then, he went to James where it says, "If any man lacks wisdom, let him ask in faith, nothing wavering, because God gives liberally."

He started off finding verses that pertained to what he was believing God for, and then he quoted them. As he spoke them out, I would turn to those verses and read them as well. Not out loud, but I would follow along and read them as he spoke them out loud.

Then there were quiet times. I noticed he would get real quiet and listen. We did that for about two hours that first morning. Then he said, "Well, let's go ahead and clean up and go have some breakfast."

The next morning, we did the same thing. We met at 6, and went through basically the same process.

After breakfast that morning, he called me to his room, and he said, "I believe I've got the mind of Christ on how we're going to start this television ministry. I've got the basic format."

Then he said, "I'm believing God to pay cash for this. It's going to take a lot of money for us to go to the television studio in Dallas. But I believe I've got the mind of God on this. But first, we've got to plant a seed in order to get a harvest to pay for this."

Of course, I was agreeing to everything, but more than anything else, I was really listening to how he planned to do this. I was learning how to tap in to the wisdom of God, and I was learning how to appropriate that wisdom once I received it.

He said, "Now, we've got to have the money for the television programs, and we've got to have the money for a new airplane. You know I don't borrow money. We pay cash for everything we do. Obviously, there's no way to do this except that we first plant seed. I've got to plant my best seed. The best seed I've got is my airplane. I'm going to give my airplane away."

How Are We Gonna Get Home?

Usually when he said he was going to give something away, he did it right then. So, I was concerned about my ride home. I didn't say, "Praise God!" I just kept quiet and acted like

I was in total agreement. Sometimes people won't know you're ignorant if you'll just be quiet.

He said, "God told me the name of the preacher He wants me to give it to. I'm going to call him right now, and I'm going to tell him what God told me."

He called a preacher friend of ours who lived in Arlington. I heard him say, "Joe Nay, this is Kenneth."

I knew Joe was believing for an airplane. I couldn't hear Joe's response until Brother Copeland told him that. In fact, Brother Copeland held the phone away from his ear because you could hear Joe screaming. He was shouting. I could just picture him dancing and running around in circles.

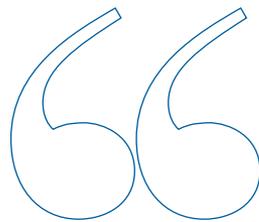

Then Brother Copeland said, "Now,

Joe, we're going to fly it back home, and then we'll make all the necessary arrangements to get it to you. But before I give it to you, I'm going to redo the engines first."

I was sitting there speechless. My next thought was, If you're going to give it away, why spend any more money on it? Let Joe repair the engines. Brother Copeland perceived my thoughts. He said, "I know what you're thinking."

I said, "What?"

He said, "You're thinking, if I'm going to give it away, why spend any more money on it?"

WE SHOULD EXPECT HIM TO INCREASE US MORE AND MORE, US AND OUR CHILDREN—AND IF IT DISTURBS SOMEONE'S RELIGIOUS SENSITIVITIES, TOO BAD! —KENNETH COPELAND

I said, "Well, that's exactly what I'm thinking. I have never heard of anything like this before." He didn't just preach prosperity; he didn't just preach sowing and reaping; he lived it—every day of his life. Not just from the pulpit, but in every area of his life.

You've got to understand, I wasn't on Brother Copeland's level financially. I was still believing for food on my table, and I was believing for a suit to wear. I was believing for money to give Carolyn and the babies while I was gone. I was believing for rent money, and he's giving airplanes away. I said, "Well, why would you spend more money on the airplane if you're going to give it away?"

The Hundredfold Principle

He said, "Because I believe in the hundredfold principle."

I knew what he was talking about because I had read Mark 10:29-30 about the hundredfold. I said, "What do you mean by that?"

He said, "I don't want to give an airplane away with bad engines because if I do, I'll receive a hundredfold return on that seed, and I'll wind up with a bigger, faster airplane that needs the engines rebuilt. I want to give one away that's first class. I'm going to do everything I can to make that airplane first class when I give it away so that the one that I get in return will be first class."

Give God Your Best

Approximately 11 days after he sowed the airplane into Joe Nay's ministry, I received a phone call around 10:30 one night. It was Brother Copeland, and he said, "Do you and Carolyn and the girls want to see a miracle?"

I said, "We'd love to see a miracle."

He said, "Then meet me at Oak Grove Airport. You're going to see a miracle."

We drove out to the airport and saw Brother Copeland, Gloria, Kellie and John standing around the taxi area, just looking down the runway. We walked up behind them and said, "What are you doing?"

He said, "I'm watching for my miracle. Just keep your eyes on the end of that runway down there. You're going to see a miracle."

We just stood there and looked with the rest of them. In a little while, I saw some lights in the distance, and I could tell it was an airplane making its final approach. Eleven days after he sowed that seed, he received a bigger, faster airplane completely paid for! We all sat in it and praised God over it. It was quite a miracle.

“Other people don’t have a problem with us believing in the blessing of the Lord until we begin to prosper.”

Faith vs. Foolishness

I was impressed. I just wanted to give something away—anything. I had been giving but not to that level. I thought, I’m going home and find something I can give away. I need a new car—I’ll give the car away.

The Lord always protected me. He knew when I was about to make a mistake. He knew I was sincere, but sincerely wrong. The Lord told me, Now before you jump out here and do this, let’s make sure that this is a revelation to you like it is to Brother Copeland. You’re not ready for this, but I’ll get you ready if you’ll listen to Me.

You can’t live on someone else’s revelation; it’s got to be a revelation to you. I had seen people try to do what Brother Copeland did, and it didn’t work for them the same way. They would wind up blaming the message or the messenger. There’s nothing wrong with the message, and there’s nothing wrong with the messenger—it simply was not a revelation to them.

A Revelation to Jerry

I learned not to just jump up and give everything away just because I saw this miracle in Brother Copeland’s life. Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the Word of God. So I kept feeding my spirit, listening to Brother Copeland’s tapes on the laws of prosperity, sowing and reaping, and watching him demonstrate it through his life. And after a while, it did become my revelation.

I began to see God bless Carolyn and me. And now, everything in our ministry has come that way. Every airplane I’ve ever owned in this ministry came that way. I’ve given several airplanes away, and God blesses me with better ones. It’s just the way my family and I operate. It became a revelation to me many years ago, and it’s still working in my life today. I learned the laws of sowing and reaping watching Brother Copeland live it and demonstrate it.

I encourage you right now to feed your spirit the Word of God and study the laws of prosperity until they really become a revelation to you. And then put them to work in your life. God will meet your every need. He is faithful! 🙏

The Enemy’s Weapon of

This past year has been very full—with both good and bad. On the one hand, the blessing has been at work greatly in the lives of believers all over the world.

Everything we’ve been preaching and everything we’ve been talking about for the past several years has arrived—healing, deliverance and prosperity. They’re here!

While I’ve seen God move in great ways, I’ve also seen some things I hope I never see again.

My heart has gone out to my brothers and sisters of faith who quit, let go of the Word and settled for less. They chose to accomplish what they believed they could do instead of what God called them to do.

As I reflect on the wickedness I have witnessed, I realize there’s a common thread: Each incident is a tactic of the enemy to stop God’s people from doing what He has called them to do and receiving what He has provided for them.

Ephesians 6:11 says, “Put on God’s whole armor [the armor of a heavy-armed soldier which God supplies], that you may be able successfully to stand up against [all] the strategies and the deceits of the devil” (Amplified Bible, Classic Edition).

As we complete the missions God has for us, we must be prepared and stand strong with our armor—the Word of God. If we’re going to be successful against Satan’s strategies—and yes, they are specific, targeted strategies—then we must make sure that we abide in the Word and the Word abides in us.

We are where we are today because we have relied on the Word of God in the past...but we can’t rest. We must continue to hold on to God’s Word, and protect ourselves and protect the blessing in our lives.

Obedience and Blessing

One of the enemy’s weapons that can prevent us from walking in all

God has for us is envy. In Genesis 26:1-6, we read:

And there was a famine in the land, beside the first famine that was in the days of Abraham. And Isaac went unto Abimelech king of the Philistines unto Gerar. And the Lord appeared unto him, and said, Go not down into Egypt; dwell in the land which I shall tell thee of: Sojourn in this land, and I will be with thee, and will bless thee; for unto thee, and unto thy seed, I will give all these countries, and I will perform the oath which I swore unto Abraham thy father; and I will make thy seed to multiply as the stars of heaven, and will give unto thy seed all these countries; and in thy seed shall all the nations of the earth be blessed; because that Abraham obeyed my voice, and kept my charge, my commandments, my statutes, and my laws. And Isaac dwelt in Gerar.

Notice that Isaac's obedience gave birth to his blessings. Meditate on that a moment: Obedience gives birth to blessings. God will bless His people when we are obedient to Him and His Word.

In this example, God told Isaac to leave his home, pack up his family and everything he owned, and move. He also told him not to go to Egypt. Instead, God directed him to the land of Gerar. Isaac obeyed, and guess what? God blessed him.

But let's keep reading: "Then Isaac sowed in that land, and received in the same year an hundredfold: and the Lord blessed him. And the man waxed great, and went forward, and grew until he became very great" (verses 12-13).

Isaac planted in that land, and he received 100 times as much as he planted. The Lord favored him with blessings. Take a moment and receive that rhema word for your situation.

Isaac walked in obedience, and God blessed him. He walked in the blessing, and that same blessing is still available to you, me and every other covenant-believing, faith-walking, Word-speaking man and woman. Whatever is happening in this world is not strong enough to stop the operation of the blessing in your life.

Seeing the Stuff

"For he had possession of flocks, and possession of herds, and great store of servants; and the Philistines envied him" (verse 14). Notice that none of them had a problem with Isaac until they saw his stuff.

The same happens with us. Other people don't have a problem with us believing in the blessing of the Lord until we begin to prosper. When that happens, we have to make up our minds. Either we can handle the manifestation of the blessing, or we can back up because we don't want anyone talking about us.

If no one is talking about you yet, it's only because the blessing is still developing roots. It's working, but like a strong tree, the roots have to grow before the branches and leaves flourish.

From personal experience, I can tell you that when the blessing becomes visible, the haters show up. No one was gossiping about me when I was only pastoring eight people. No one was tweeting lies about me when I was holding services in the Kathleen Mitchell Elementary School. And no one was writing negative articles or jumping out of corners demanding interviews. But when they could see the effects of the blessing—when they could see the stuff—they got mad. They became envious.

“Envy is a tool of the enemy. It is ‘a feeling of discontentment or covetousness with regard to another’s advantage, success or possession.’”

Envy and Jealousy

Envy is a tool of the enemy. It is “a feeling of discontentment or covetousness with regard to another’s advantage, success or possession.” It’s that sick feeling that comes when one sees another’s success. It’s similar to jealousy, which the enemy also uses to create confusion and destroy relationships. To be jealous is to resent what someone has or what has happened in his life. Like envy, jealousy wants to have what someone else has.

Look at what envy caused the Philistines to do in verse 15. “For all the wells which his father’s servants had digged in the days of Abraham his father, the Philistines had stopped them, and filled them with earth.”

They envied Isaac and wanted to deprive him of what he possessed. If you continue reading in that chapter, you’ll see that Isaac moved and dug new wells, and those new wells flowed. In a land where it was often difficult to find water, Isaac’s wells flowed. The Philistines couldn’t stop the blessing. The envy of others couldn’t keep the blessing from Isaac...and it can’t keep the blessing from you.

Eventually, the Philistines admitted that Isaac was, indeed, blessed. They told him, “We saw certainly that the Lord was with thee: and we said, Let there be now an oath betwixt us, even betwixt us and thee, and let us make a covenant with thee; That thou wilt do us no hurt, as we have not touched thee, and as we have done unto thee nothing but good, and have sent thee away in peace: thou art now the blessed of the Lord” (verses 28-29).

There will come a time when those who hate, envy and try to deprive you will admit you’re blessed. Now, that’s good news!

Destructive Companions

Envy is not some simple, innocent emotion. It keeps seriously destructive company. Galatians 5:19-21 says, “Now the works of the flesh are manifest, which are these; Adultery, fornication, uncleanness, lasciviousness, idolatry, witchcraft, hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like....”

These companions were apparent in Acts 13 when the Jews began speaking against Paul. “And the next sabbath day came almost the whole city together to hear the word of God. But when the Jews saw the multitudes, they were filled with envy, and spake against those things which were spoken by Paul, contradicting and blaspheming” (verses 44-45).

Envy moved the Jews to speak negatively, contradict and blaspheme. The Jews wanted to deprive Paul of the blessing that flowed through his life and ministry. If you are in ministry, then envy will move others to try to stop you from preaching the gospel, too. That’s the enemy’s ultimate goal. He wants to do whatever he can to stop the gospel from going forth and changing lives.

Recognize and Stand

As men and women of faith, we must stand against envy with the Word of God. We must recognize when envy is coming against us and even when the enemy tries to infect us with it.

First Corinthians 3:3 says, “For ye are yet carnal: for whereas there is among you envying, and strife, and divisions, are ye not carnal, and walk as men?”

To have a carnal mind is to have a mind that opposes the Word of God. That is not us. We’re changed. We’re saved. We’re spiritual. We have a Kingdom mindset.

Who is a wise man and endued with knowledge among you? let him show out of a good conversation [lifestyle] his works with meekness of wisdom. But if ye have bitter envying and strife in your hearts, glory not, and lie not against the truth. This wisdom descendeth not from above, but is earthly, sensual, devilish. For where envying and strife is, there is confusion and every evil work (James 3:13-16).

Some Christians take envy lightly, thinking, It’s not such a big thing. But if it can be a foundation for every evil work—and if it can block the blessing—then you don’t want to tolerate it for one moment. You have authority over it by the Word of God and in the Name of Jesus.

Romans 13:13 says, “Let us walk honestly, as in the day; not in rioting and drunkenness, not in chambering and wantonness, not in strife and envying.”

Right now, take a moment to consider the situations in your life and even to examine your own heart. Is envy a motivator? If so, take authority over it. If you’ve been persecuted for it, stand in faith against it. If you’ve been a perpetrator of it, repent and receive forgiveness.

Don’t let anything keep you from God’s goodness. He’s ready to explode the blessing—and all that it brings—into your life. Recognize this strategy of the enemy—in those around you and even in yourself. The blessings of God are running over. Don’t let anything prevent you from receiving them! ♥

'BETTER AND MORE BLESSED'

KCM, God bless your ministry. Ever since I became your Partner over 10 years ago, my life through Jesus has gotten better and more blessed. I have overcome the death of a parent, joblessness, loss of friends, alcohol addiction, obesity, even breast cancer and more. My God supplies all my needs physically and spiritually. All I want to do is praise Him. Thank you for your prayers and gifts. Jesus is Lord.

'IT HAS CHANGED MY OUTLOOK'

My wife, Valerie, and I are Partners. I am absolutely in love with Brother Copeland's book THE BLESSING of The LORD. Wow, the light this shines on us, as believers, is incredible! Please inform Brother Copeland that it has changed my outlook on who I am in Jesus.

Matthew C. | Jenison, Mich.

ALL OUR DEBTS ELIMINATED!

I WANT TO GIVE GOD PRAISE FOR CANCELING THE DEBT THAT HAD BESET MY HUSBAND AND ME FOR A NUMBER OF YEARS. WE WERE GREATLY ENCOURAGED BY GEORGE PEARSONS AND GLORIA COPELAND'S TEACHINGS ABOUT DEBT CANCELLATION AND APPLIED THESE TEACHINGS TO OUR LIVES.

One day the Holy Spirit dropped into my spirit that I should begin to confess Colossians 2:14, Amplified Bible, Classic Edition. This scripture was such an encouragement to us and we stood on it through thick and thin. Over time the Lord enabled me to get a good redundancy package, a job that paid nearly double what I was earning before on the terms I wanted, and an inheritance, all of which helped to eliminate all of our debts! To God be the glory. Thank you for helping us to believe God and stand for this result.

'YOU KEPT ME STRONG IN MY FAITH'

My third son was born with a respiratory problem. He was in children's hospital for almost four weeks. With prayer from family, and me getting strength by watching Kenneth Copeland late at night, my son survived and is now 26 years old! I wanted to share it with you because you kept me strong in my faith, so I didn't give up, even when my son almost died. Thank you! God bless your ministry, and may He give you many, many more years to share His Word. Thank you!

THE FAITH OF A CHILD

My dog just had puppies. My daughter quoted scriptures knowing that God's Word says we can believe for anything. She was believing for one of the puppies, named Krystle, to live and not die. One of your prayer ministers prayed that the puppy would live and not die. They were praising God over the phone as the lifeless puppy began to breathe and move and wiggle!

PARTNERSHIP LIFELINE

After being a Partner for 20 years, I just wanted to testify that this ministry is good ground. Over the years I have sown into different ministries but never had the return like I've had with KCM. Thanks to the BVOV magazine I have learned the laws of prosperity.

When I started my own business, every time I needed a breakthrough, I sowed a seed into KCM. The return came every time, either the next day or during the same week! I have never sown a seed without seeing a return, and what a harvest! I can't thank Kenneth and Gloria enough for their ministry, faithfulness and integrity. I would never give up my partnership with this ministry—it has been a financial lifeline for 20 years, and I believe it will be for another 20 years. Kenneth and Gloria, I believe it will take eternity for you to hear all the testimonies of the lives you have touched! Thank you so very much from the bottom of my heart! A grateful Partner!

SALVATION PRAYER

If you do not know Jesus as your Saviour and Lord, simply pray the following prayer in faith, and Jesus will be your Lord!

Heavenly Father, I come to You in the Name of Jesus. Your Word says, “Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved” and “If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved” (Acts 2:21; Romans 10:9). You said my salvation would be the result of Your Holy Spirit giving me new birth by coming to live in me (John 3:5-6, 15-16; Romans 8:9-11) and that if I would ask, You would fill me with Your Spirit and give me the ability to speak with other tongues (Luke 11:13; Acts 2:4).

I take You at Your Word. I confess that Jesus is Lord. And I believe in my heart that You raised Him from the dead. Thank You for coming into my heart, for giving me Your Holy Spirit as You have promised, and for being Lord over my life. Amen.

'REJOICING IN GOD'S GOODNESS!'

We're rejoicing in God's goodness! A few years ago the Lord said our house would be paid off in record time with money left over. I hung on to His word, not seeing how this could be possible, and He would remind me from time to time. In 2017, God got us in position for an amazing business opportunity. Last week, we sent the check to pay off a 29-year mortgage and we are in the process of purchasing a beautiful company truck. "How great is [His] goodness which [He has] laid up for those who fear [Him]" Psalm 31:19, New King James Version. We love you, KCM!

Cathy C. | Bismarck, N.D.

HEALED AND DELIVERED!

I have been listening to and watching KCM since 1980. In 2007, I had an accident while driving a city bus. My neck and lower back were injured and I ended up having to quit my job and go on disability as the pain would not allow me to work.

I attended the KCM crusade in Calgary in 2015 and went to every meeting. After the last service, Kenneth Copeland began calling out areas which needed healing. He called out facet joints, which were a major problem for me and kept me from doing any physical work. I was getting the nerves burned every six months, and every three months cortisone shots. I was on pain meds daily and was still in pain.

Kenneth said if you feel heat on your back, you are being healed. I did not feel any heat until I put my hand on my lower back and it was hot! Since then I have had no burns, no cortisone shots and I've reduced my meds by two-thirds. I took a job as church custodian—something I could not do before. In the three years since then, I've had many opportunities to be sick from leg cramps, chest problems, pain, etc. But I have not taken them. I have rebuked every disease, germ, virus and any illness in the Name of Jesus and declared by His stripes I am healed! Jesus has never failed me. I have had some symptoms disappear immediately and some very soon after. I was also set free from cigarette smoking, after a 40-year habit. I've just had a physical and passed with flying colors. My health is 100 percent. For this, I praise God!

JENNY KUHNE

stood on an 8-foot ladder as she helped friends paint the outside of a townhouse. The warm sun felt deliciously inviting on her back following a frigid Minnesota winter. There was something soothing about the rhythmic brush strokes as she painted.

Releasing a deep sigh, she let her mind circle the incredible joy she felt at having discovered the call of God on her life.

She was The Cookie Lady.

THE

by

Seven months earlier, Jenny had been introduced to the problem of human trafficking. The Lord had told her to join a group of women who ministered in strip clubs.

Raised in a family with a metaphorical picket fence, Jenny had had no frame of reference for the life of a stripper. The first time she had gone to a club with the women's group, she kept her eyes on the floor. Yet she knew without a doubt that this was the call of God on her life. No question.

Since then, she'd spent most Monday nights at a strip club.

After six months, the Lord told her to start a new group. Two other women joined her. Their primary goal was to befriend the dancers, never judge, and always be cheerful and interested.

And cookies. They took chocolate chunk cookies.

They were already known as The Cookie Ladies.

Jenny finished painting the side of the townhouse, and had climbed down the ladder when she noticed she had missed a spot. Stepping back on the ladder, she began her ascent to the top. Standing atop the ladder, Jenny reached out to paint the spot when suddenly the ladder shifted, and Jenny began to fall. Not wanting to land directly on the ladder, she kicked the ladder out of her way. She landed hard on some landscaping.

Catching her breath, she lay there for a minute.

"Are you all right?" her friends shouted, running to her side.

"It's OK," Jenny said. "Just give me a minute."

She tried sitting up, but couldn't. It felt like someone was holding her down.

"Do you want us to call 911?"

"No, give me a minute, and I'll get up."

She tried again, but couldn't get up.

"You'd better call," Jenny said.

Firemen, paramedics and police arrived. Put in a neck brace and on a backboard, Jenny was rushed to the hospital. Because she could move her arms and legs, she was considered a low priority, and waited four hours while the emergency room staff tended to a patient with a gunshot wound and another who had been stabbed.

Following an X-ray, the doctor came in to discuss her injuries.

"Your neck is broken," he said, "and your back is broken in two places."

Angelic Help

"I was stunned," Jenny recalls. "They did a CT scan and an MRI, then they called in a surgeon. He admitted me to the hospital and described the damage in more detail. My back had two compression fractures. The worst damage was to my neck: My C7 vertebra had fractures all the way around the outside. The inside had burst, the explosion protruding out the back of my neck. I could run my finger up the back of my neck and feel it sticking out."

"I realized that when I had tried to get up, angels held me down. If I'd sat up, it probably would have severed my spinal cord. That first night in the hospital the Lord gave me Luke 8:48 in the Amplified Bible. 'He said to her, "Daughter, your faith [your personal trust and confidence in Me] has made you well. Go in peace (untroubled, undisturbed well-being)."'

"He also told me, I have a mission for you and I can't have you doing it in a wheelchair. I need you healthy and whole. I started confessing, 'I am healed and whole from the top of my head to the soles of my feet. Inside and out.'

"My surgeon was a great guy. He said that to repair my C7, he would have to fuse all the vertebrae in my neck. He wanted to wait and see how I did. He put me in neck and back braces, and after two days discharged me. I went back every week for an X-ray. Each week when I returned, nothing had changed."

A Step of Faith

Two weeks after the fall, Jenny said, “Devil, you’re not stopping me.” Wearing her neck and back braces, she and the other ladies took cookies to a strip club.

“What happened to you?” people asked.

“I fell off a ladder and broke my neck and back,” Jenny explained.

“Oh, no!”

Each week, the strip club staff watched Jenny’s progress. They realized that nothing would stop her. Although Jenny thought they were at the strip clubs for the dancers, many others were touched—the managers, waiters, bartenders, doormen, the people at the front desk and even the patrons. The ladies didn’t discuss Jesus with anyone until they had developed a solid, trusting relationship.

One of the questions Jenny often asked was, “What are your dreams?”

“No one’s ever asked me that,” one girl said.

“It’s been so long I can’t remember,” another said.

“Holistic health,” a young, single mother said. “I’ve always dreamed of working in holistic health.”

At home, Jenny researched information on schools of holistic health, how to get financial aid and day care programs. She printed the material and put it in an envelope. The next Monday, she handed it to the young woman.

“You did all this for me?” the girl asked. A month later, she left to pursue her dream.

Life and Death

“Everyone has a different story,” Jenny explains. “Some dancers have been sent to work there by pimps or boyfriends who want the money. Some are single parents who can’t make it on a salary from McDonald’s®. Others are there to get money for college.

“We pray for anyone who wants prayer. Some dancers have moved on to different careers. But so have DJs, managers and bartenders. And yet, no one gets upset with us.

“There is one national chain of strip clubs that won’t allow any type of ministry inside. One night we were at a stoplight when a man on the sidewalk said, ‘Hey, don’t you hand out cookies? Could you come to our club? Just give them my name at the door.’

“We’d been praying about how to get into that club. We gave his name at the door and were ushered inside. We’ve been told numerous times that other groups haven’t gotten past the front door.

in 1981, they moved to Tulsa, Okla., where Kevin attended Rhema Bible Training Center. While there, they were introduced to Kenneth Copeland Ministries. They heard Kenneth and Gloria speak live at one of Brother Kenneth Hagin’s campmeetings.

It had only been a few weeks after Jenny’s fall when Kevin asked if she wanted to attend Faith Explosion. She did. On Thursday night, Brother Copeland was preaching when he stopped and began to pray in the spirit. Then he gave a word of knowledge.

“Someone’s neck is being healed right

“The tragic thing is that the dancers often end up being trafficked out of the clubs. Some think they’re going to be spending time with a single client and go willingly. Others are drugged. They wake up naked and captive somewhere.

“One of the girls we befriended was raised in a Christian home but had gotten away from her roots. One night she called one of our leaders and said, ‘There’s stuff going on here and I’m scared. My friend and I need out of here, now!’

“We called an ex-police officer who works in human trafficking. They were able to get the girl out who called that night, but not her friend. The next morning, they found the other girl’s dead body. The girl who escaped rededicated her life to the Lord, is back in church and getting an education.”

Faith for a Miracle

In August 2015 Jenny’s home church, Living Word Christian Center in Minneapolis, hosted a Faith Explosion with Kenneth Copeland. Jenny and her husband, Kevin, had a long history of faith. Right after they married here,” he said pointing at the back of his neck. “You’re not going to have surgery. You’re getting a brand-new vertebra.”

“That’s me!” Jenny said.

“I claim it, in Jesus’ Name!”

The next morning when she woke, the Lord said, Feel your neck.

It was normal. Nothing stuck out.

Jenny walked into the kitchen with tears streaming down her face.

“I have a new vertebra,” she told Kevin.

“I know,” he said, tears gleaming in his eyes.

Jenny wanted to call the doctor right away and go see him, but the Lord told her to wait for her next appointment. Ten days later, wearing both her braces, Jenny waited as the surgeon studied two X-rays. The one on the left had been taken at her last visit. The one on the right had just been taken.

“What do you see?” she asked.

“You’ve got a new vertebra,” the surgeon said. “It’s like a baby. It needs to mature.”

“I know,” Jenny said.

“You really are a miracle.”

Jenny only worked with physical therapy three times. “There’s nothing we can do for you,” they said. “You already have full range of motion. Normally that takes 12 to 18 months.”

Jenny celebrated by running 10 miles—and hasn’t stopped since.

Passing It On

“In the fall of 2015, after I received my healing in August, it was slow at the club and we were talking to the bartender,” Jenny remembers. “Two men came in, and we gave them cookies and left. As we were leaving, the two men came out. I heard one tell the other that he’d hurt his back.

“The Lord told me to tell them my story and pray for them. We parked the car and I told them my story. I said, ‘What He’s done for me, He’ll do for you.’ We led them both in the sinner’s prayer. Tears streamed down their faces as they gave their lives to Jesus. Then we prayed for his back.”

“That club we just left,” he said, “I used to own it.”

That same month, Jenny went with her cousins to a prayer meeting in Branson, Mo. While there, they had lunch with Lynne Hammond. Encouraged by her cousins to tell Lynne about her healing, Jenny told her the story.

“The next year, before Faith Explosion, Lynne called and said she wanted me to give my testimony. She’d told Gloria about my healing, but they wanted to surprise Kenneth. I took my braces with me and gave my testimony.”

Another year passed and Kenneth and Gloria returned for the 2017 Faith Explosion. At one point during the service, Kenneth asked, “Is Jenny Kuhne here?”

Jenny stood up. As tears streamed down her face, Brother Copeland sang a revised version of the Happy Birthday Song. He said: “Happy Birthday to Your New Vertebra.”

Jenny and her rescued pit bull, Brownie

“SOMEONE’S NECK IS BEING HEALED RIGHT HERE,” [KENNETH] SAID POINTING AT THE BACK OF HIS NECK. “YOU’RE NOT GOING TO HAVE SURGERY. YOU’RE GETTING A BRAND-NEW VERTEBRA.”

“THAT’S ME!” JENNY SAID.

Each year, Jenny celebrates the birth of her new vertebra and her miracle. She celebrates the call of God on her life. She celebrates dancers, DJs, managers, bartenders and patrons—all people Jesus loved so much that He died for them. She celebrates changed lives, and her own life that is so much richer because she’s The Cookie Lady. 🍪

NO TIME FOR CLAY POTS

by
Kenneth Copeland

We're hearing reports from all over the world. Healings. Miracles. Revivals. People are being swept into the kingdom of God by the thousands. God is pouring out His Spirit in these last days. And truly, it is an exciting thing to watch. But don't be simply a spectator. Be part of the action!

I can just hear you now.

"Who me?" you say. "I'm no pastor! I'm no apostle. There's not much I can do. I'm just an ordinary believer."

Just an ordinary believer? Jesus had a few things to say about ordinary believers. He said, "In my name shall they cast out devils; they shall speak with new tongues; they shall take up serpents; and if they drink any deadly thing, it shall not hurt them; they shall lay hands on the sick, and they shall recover" (Mark 16:17-18).

Obviously, Jesus thought highly of the ordinary believer. And, no matter who you are, He has a purpose and a place for you in these thrilling days.

God has called you to play a vital role in the Body of Christ. He's anointed you and endued you with power to fulfill a specific function. In fact, when you stand before the judgment seat of Christ, you're going to be responsible for that calling. So, it would be to your advantage to find out what it is!

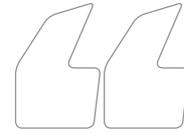

Now, I've had some people tell me that God just hasn't called them to do anything very important. And to prove it, they'll quote 2 Timothy 2:20.

"Brother Copeland," they'll say, "not everyone can have a powerful ministry like you have. You know what the Bible says, 'In a great house there are vessels of honor and vessels of dishonor. Some are gold and some are earthen.' I guess I'm just one of those little clay pots."

Nonsense! To truly understand that passage you must read the whole thing:

"But in a great house there are not only vessels of gold and silver, but also [utensils] of wood and earthenware, and some for honorable and noble [use] and some for menial and ignoble [use]. So whoever cleanses himself [from what is ignoble and unclean, who separates himself from contact with contaminating and corrupting influences] will [then himself] be a vessel set apart and useful for honorable and noble purposes, consecrated and profitable to the Master, fit and ready for any good work" (2 Timothy 2:20-21, Amplified Bible, Classic Edition).

You see, God isn't the one who decides whether you'll be a golden vessel or a clay pot—you are!

God has called you to play a vital role in the body of christ. He's anointed you and endued you with power to fulfill a specific function.

WE NEED EACH OTHER

“That they all may be one; as thou, Father, art in me, and I in thee, that they also may be one in us: that the world may believe that thou hast sent me.” John 17:21

It’s time we, as believers, began to enter into the oneness Jesus prayed for in John 17:21. It’s time we held on to one another in good times as well as bad. It’s time we realized that we need one another.

We do, you know. I need your faith as much as you need mine. Together, we can face anything and win in Jesus.

Let me show you why. In John 3:34, God says Jesus was given the Holy Spirit without measure. He was more powerful than all the demons of hell and all wicked spirits of all classes, including satan himself. He was able to defeat their power combined.

Now consider this. We are His Body. Each of us has been given the measure of faith according to Romans 12:1-3. That measure is enough to take care of our own personal needs. However, there is more involved here than just our own personal lives.

We have a world to win! We are the end-time generation. We need all the help we can get. But, thank God, we can get all the help we need!

How? By joining together. Ephesians 4:13 says that when we all come together in the unity of the faith, we’ll have “the measure of the stature of the fullness of Christ.”

In other words, when the Body of Christ comes together and begins to function as one, we’ll have the Holy Spirit without measure—just like Jesus did! We’ll begin to see ministries functioning in the fullness of their callings. We’ll begin to see manifestations of the Holy Spirit in full measure. We’ll see Jesus in fullness as we’ve never seen Him before.

Then the world will know the Father sent Him.

Step into that oneness today. Start today making a daily effort to make yourself available to God to pray for others. Start your day by saying, “Holy Spirit, use me to pray for someone today. I offer You my measure of faith.”

Once we truly join together in faith, all the demons of hell won’t be able to overcome us. We’ll march right over them in the fullness of the power of Jesus and bring the age to a glorious close! 🙌

Why then do so many believers choose to do menial work in the kingdom of God? Why are they content to remain clay pots? Because they lack one thing that every golden vessel must have. They lack dedication. They haven’t made a quality decision to separate themselves forever from sin and doubt. They haven’t been willing to go on with God past the point of no return.

Deciding to be truly dedicated is like climbing into the cockpit of a single engine plane. If the engine fails

TAKE THE TIME TO SEEK GOD AND FIND OUT WHAT YOUR
CALLING IS. THEN
DEDICATE YOURSELF
100 PERCENT.

in midair, you can’t just throw up your hands and say, “OK, I quit.” You’re committed. For better or for worse, you’ve got to figure out how to get that plane safely to the ground.

That’s how you’ve got to be if you’re going to become a vessel fit and ready for any good work. You’ve got to be absolutely committed. You can’t be the kind who bails out whenever trouble strikes.

My friend, Jesus’ return is near. This is an exciting time. But it’s definitely no time for clay pots! So, if you haven’t yet made the kind of commitment that will turn you into a golden vessel, admit it. Then take the time to get before God and study His WORD until you and the Holy Spirit deal with your willingness to be committed.

Philippians 2:13 tells us that God is at work in us both to will and to do His good pleasure. He is faithful, and He will create in you the power and the desire to make that commitment. And remember, you don’t have to worry about fulfilling that commitment alone. God will be there every step of the way—providing the power, furnishing the weapons and equipping you with everything you need to get the job done.

Do you remember when you first made the decision to trust Jesus as LORD and Savior? Once you made the decision, God did the rest. His power, His Spirit, and His WORD performed their functions and you were born again. A decision was all it took.

Making a commitment to carry out your calling works much the same way. All you must do is determine in your heart to obey your calling, and God will step in immediately and give you the strength and abilities you need.

So, take the time to seek God and find out what your calling is. Then dedicate yourself 100 percent. Do it now. The hour is late. The glory of God is spilling over the earth in one final, thrilling wave.

It’s not trickling out of clay pots. It’s being poured through golden vessels. And if you listen, you’ll discover that’s exactly what God’s calling you to be. 🙌

Still In the Footsteps of a Prophet

Fifty years ago, in February 1969, a man named Kenneth Copeland came to Jerry Savelle's hometown in Shreveport, Louisiana, and preached a message of faith that would change Jerry's life forever. In 1970, Jerry would join Brother Copeland at Kenneth Copeland Evangelistic Association, first working for the ministry and later teaming up with and preaching alongside Brother Copeland.

Although he launched his own ministry in January 1974, Jerry has remained faithful to continue following in the footsteps of his mentor, embracing the teachings that set him on a lifelong journey of living by faith.

by Gloria Copeland

I hope you don't spend a lot of time listening to the negative news that's being broadcast these days. It's so filled with reports about all the bad things people are doing and the evil that's running rampant in the world, it can make you want to shake your head in discouragement. It can make you want to say, "What kind of day are we living in?"

THE DAY OF GOD'S FAVOUR

Have you ever asked that question?

I certainly have. But I'm happy to report I've also discovered there's a good answer to it. An answer that comes not from the negative newscasters but from Someone a lot more trustworthy and in the know: the Lord Jesus Christ!

He told us when He came to earth what kind of day it is we're living in. He announced time and again during His earthly ministry: "The Spirit of the Lord is upon me, because he hath anointed me to preach the gospel to the poor; he hath sent me to heal the brokenhearted, to preach deliverance to the captives, and recovering of sight to the blind, to set at liberty them that are bruised, to preach the acceptable year of the Lord" (Luke 4:18-19).

The phrase "the acceptable year of the Lord" is identified in the Amplified Bible, Classic Edition, as the day when salvation and the free favours of God profusely abound. That's the day we're living in, right there.

We're living in the day when the salvation and free favours of God profusely abound! We're living in the day of God's grace when His kingdom is manifesting on earth, and all who will believe can enjoy its wonderful benefits—not just in a small measure, but profusely.

Profuse is a wonderful word. According to the dictionary, it refers to "that which is given freely and in large amount, often to excess." It means "lavish, overabounding or abundant." It describes, in other words, the kind of life Jesus came to give us.

He said in John 10:10 He came that we "might have life, and...have it more abundantly," and we see in the Gospels that He always ministered that life to people lavishly. He never left a blind man blind or a sick person sick, when they came to Him for healing. He never left a leper with leprosy. Whenever someone was suffering under some yoke of bondage in their lives, if they would receive Him, His Anointing would always destroy that yoke and set them free.

Jesus never withheld God's BLESSING from people. He never made it hard for them to receive. On the

"We're living in the day of God's grace when His kingdom is manifesting on earth, and all who will believe can enjoy its wonderful benefits."

POINTS TO GET YOU THERE:

This is the day when God's free favours profusely abound! It's the day when you can receive those favours and help bring in the last great harvest of souls.

Jesus announced time and again during His earthly ministry that He came to usher in the day of God's favour.

WORDS
ON FAITH

Don't Think Like the World

If you think like the world thinks, eventually you will act like the world acts. Unrestrained thoughts produce unrestrained actions.

So control your thoughts by bringing them into obedience to the Scriptures.

Program your mind with The WORD of God. The WORD is spirit and it is life. When your mind is totally saturated with The WORD of God, your will becomes strong to exercise authority to overcome every ungodly thought and evil habit.

Don't let satan deceive you into sacrificing the glory of God in your life for a few moments of self-indulgence and sin. Restrain your thought life. Meditate The WORD instead of selfish, carnal thoughts. Keep your eyes on Jesus, the author and finisher of your faith.

by Kenneth Copeland

contrary, Jesus was easy to receive from!

When He went to Simon Peter's house and found Peter's mother-in-law was sick, He prayed for her, and she got up healed (Luke 4:38-39). When Jairus came to Him on the seashore and asked Him to come to his house and lay His hand on his dying daughter, Jesus went. And even though the little girl died before they got there, He touched her and raised her up (Mark 5:22-42).

When the woman with the issue of blood pressed through the crowd that was surrounding Him and said, "If I just touch His garment, I'll be healed," the anointing was flowing from Him so profusely that the instant she touched Him she was immediately made whole (Mark 5:28-34).

When He was coming down from the mountain with great crowds following Him and the leper fell down before Him and said, "If You are willing, You can make me clean," Jesus touched him and said, "I am willing!" and the man was made clean (Matthew 8:1-3, New King James Version).

Acts 10:38 says, "God anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the Holy Ghost and with power: who went about doing good, and healing ALL that were oppressed of the devil..."

Why did He heal ALL? Because, as the end of the verse says, "God was with him." And God is, and always has been, profusely GOOD!

Time Is Running Out

"But Gloria," you might say, "Jesus did all those things 2,000 years ago. They happened when He was physically here on earth."

Yes, that's right. But what difference does that make? According to Hebrews 13:8, "Jesus Christ [is] the same yesterday, and to day, and for ever." He didn't change after He finished His earthly ministry and ascended back into heaven. He didn't scale back His profuse goodness.

Quite the opposite! On the day of Pentecost, in Acts 2, He poured out God's BLESSING more lavishly than ever. He sent an outpouring of the Holy Spirit that was so abundant it spilled out of the upper room in Jerusalem and got on all the people in the street.

Since then, He's expanded His ministry exponentially by sending all of us, as believers, into the world to be His witnesses. He's equipped us with the same Holy-Ghost Anointing He relied on in His ministry. He's commissioned and empowered us to go about just like He did, doing good and manifesting the kingdom of God. As He said in Matthew 28:18-20: "All power is given unto me in heaven and in earth. Go ye therefore, and teach all nations, baptizing them in the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Ghost: teaching them to observe all things whatsoever I have commanded you: and, lo, I am with you always, even unto the end of the world."

Now it's our turn to be the ones through whom the kingdom of heaven lavishly breaks through into people's lives! Now we're anointed to heal the sick, bring deliverance to the captives, and proclaim the day when the salvation and free favours of God profusely abound.

Here's the good news: We're still living in that day! Despite all the darkness we see in the world around us, God's kingdom is in us and among us (Luke 17:21, AMPC), and the door to it is standing wide open. God is still saying through us to all men that "whosoever will" may believe on Jesus, come in and be BLESSED.

This day won't last forever, though. As Jesus said, this age will come to an end, and that end is nearer now than ever. Jesus is coming soon to catch away His Church and when He does, after more than 2,000 years of God's free favours abounding profusely, this day will end.

Before that happens, we want to make sure everyone in the world has heard the gospel. We want to bring in the full harvest of the fruit of the earth. When we take off out of here for heaven, we want to take with us everyone who wants to go.

But we don't have much time left to get our job done!

We're in the last of the last days. The end of this world is rapidly approaching, and we still have multitudes of people to reach.

How are we going to reach them all?

I'll tell you this: We certainly won't be able to do it just in our own strength. The task is too great. Even with all the wonderful technology that's available today, even with radio, television, satellites and airplanes that can fly us all around the world to preach to people, if we had to win this world just in the natural, we'd never be able to do it.

But, praise God, we're not limited to just the natural. We can operate in the supernatural. Because we've been raised up together with Christ and seated with Him in heavenly places (Ephesians 2:6), we can accomplish our mission on earth by operating in the authority He's given us in the heavenly realm.

From the Oval Office to the Throne Room of God

Just think about the mighty power that's available to us, as believers!

We've been made part of God's heavenly government. We can abide in Him, let His Word abide in us, and ask whatever we will and it will be done for us (John 15:7). We can come boldly to God's throne of grace anytime we want and receive whatever we need, to do what He's commissioned us to do (Hebrews 4:16).

One time I was meditating on this and realized I can't get anywhere near that kind of power in the natural! I can't go into the White House anytime I want. I can't just walk boldly into the Oval Office, expecting the president to do whatever I ask.

I did visit the White House some years ago with Billye Brim, but we weren't allowed to go into the Oval Office. Even though it was evening, and no one was in there, there was a rope stretched across the door indicating that we couldn't go in.

What we could do, however, was take our place in the throne room of God. We could agree for His will to be done in that office on earth as it is in heaven. And that's what we did. We got down on our knees and went up to a higher office of authority. We stuck our hands under the rope onto the carpet of the Oval Office and prayed...and prayed... and prayed.

"Do you really think that did any good?" someone might ask.

Certainly! As believers we're joint heirs with Jesus. We have joint seating with Him in God's kingdom, and He said to us in Matthew 18:18-19: "Whatsoever ye shall bind on earth shall be bound in heaven: and whatsoever ye shall loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven. Again I say unto you, That if two of you shall agree on earth as touching any thing that they shall ask, it shall be done for them of my Father which is in heaven."

We're God's kingdom ambassadors. We're authorized to operate in His kingdom while we're here on earth to get people delivered, cause God's will to come to pass, and speak anointed words that will change governments and nations, and set people free.

Actually, that's our calling!

We're called by God to change things in this world. We've been sent by Him to pull people out from under the dominion of darkness and get them into God's kingdom. To tell them the good news and say to them, "You don't have to stay like you are. You don't have to live as a slave to sin and this world's system. You don't have to live in poverty, and sickness and defeat. You can live in the kingdom of God!"

Obviously, none of us as individuals can reach the whole world with that message. But all of us can cooperate with God and fulfill our part of the mission. We can all do whatever He says to do, even though at times it might look in the natural to be impossible.

"GOD HAS A FINANCIAL PLAN... HE KNOWS HOW MUCH MONEY IT'S GOING TO TAKE FOR US TO GET THE GOSPEL PREACHED TO EVERY CREATURE..."

An unbreakable, divine covenant, The WORD of God is filled with promises of victory sworn to you in the precious blood of Jesus that will empower you to triumph every time.

When the storms of life threaten to shake you, use God's WORD to anchor your soul. Hebrews 6:17-19

Remind the devil that God's promises to you have been ratified in Jesus' blood. Revelation 12:10-11

Don't just talk about your blood covenant with God, walk in it by committing yourself fully to His plan. Romans 12:1

When the devil accuses you, plead the blood of Jesus. Hebrews 10:14

I've learned both from reading the Bible and from personal experience, that God frequently tells His people to do impossible things!

He told Moses, for example, to under-take the seemingly impossible task of ordering Pharaoh to release the Israelites. Remembering the Egyptian official he'd murdered and the 40 years he'd spent hiding on the backside of the desert, Moses asked, "Lord, who am I to go to Pharaoh?"

"Certainly I will be with thee," the Lord answered (Exodus 3:12).

God said the same thing to Gideon after calling him to take on the seemingly impossible task of conquering Israel's enemies. When Gideon said, "Who am

I to do this?" He answered, "Surely I will be with thee" (Judges 6:16).

What does God mean when He says, "I will be with thee"?

He means His Anointing will be present in you and upon you, empowering you to do whatever He tells you to do! He means He won't leave you on your own. He'll work in you and through you so that you can say, as Jesus did when He was on earth, "The Father that dwelleth in me, he doeth the works" (John 14:10).

Of course, to be able to say that you must disconnect from the kingdom of the world and connect to the kingdom of God. You can't live on the fence, walking a little bit in one kingdom and a little bit in the other. That doesn't work.

It's what a lot of believers try to do though. They get born again into God's kingdom and then just keep living life in the natural. They keep thinking like the world thinks and depending on the world's system.

If we want to operate in the kingdom of heaven and see the power of God manifested in us and through us, we can't do that. We must renew our minds to think like God thinks. We must find out what He said in His Word and obey it.

When it comes to finances, for instance, if we want to prosper supernaturally, we must get with God's program. We must sow to the spirit by tithing and giving. Instead of putting ourselves first and focusing only on our own needs, we must put God first in our finances, stand on His prosperity promises, and operate by faith.

God has a financial plan for this hour that's greater than anything we've yet seen! He knows how much money it's going to take for us to get the gospel preached to every creature in this world, and He has it all ready for us. He said in the Bible, "The wealth of the sinner is laid up for the just.... [They] have heaped treasure together for the last days" (Proverbs 13:22; James 5:3).

Now the last days are here, and the end-time wealth transfer has begun! Make sure you receive your part of it. Operate according to God's kingdom principles of prosperity, help finance this last great harvest of souls, and take every opportunity to tell everyone you can what kind of day we're living in. Proclaim the good news: This is the day when the salvation and free favours of God profusely abound! 🙌

Commander
Kellie's Corner

THIS IS ME!

Happy 2019, Superkids! I hope you are ready for an extraordinary year! Extraordinary like Jesus and EXTRA-ORDINARY LIKE YOU! After our year of digging deeper into Jesus, living an ordinary life is out of the question!

Remember, Superkids, you are filled with the very EXTRA that Jesus Himself brings. Last year, that extra press to get to know Jesus better, changed my awareness of Him as my focus, my everything, my best friend.

When you make it your heart's cry to give yourself completely to Him, it takes you to a whole new place. This is the commitment we all made to Him last month, here in Commander Kellie's Corner.

"This is my gift to You, Jesus. I give You ME! My life, my thoughts, 24/7, every beat of my heart, my skill, my talent, my good and my bad, my strengths and my weaknesses, I give to You now. My gift will be just as daily as Yours is, Jesus. If I begin to hold anything back from You, please show me and I will give it back."

Satan would love it if we would just make one-time, verbal commitments to Jesus and be done with it. Ask Jesus into my heart—check; made a commitment last year—check; last month—check. If the devil can talk us into this, he doesn't have to worry too much about us destroying his works. But Jesus gave us authority and power over every work of the devil! So he is VERY afraid of a Superkid who knows Jesus, and whose life belongs to Him EVERY DAY!

This Superkid life of DAILY focus on Jesus is the true gift we gave to Him. This year, to really do this and not just talk about it, we are going to pursue this gift-giving as much as we pursued HIM last year. We are going to give ourselves to Him, not only daily but piece by piece. So, I'm breaking it up for our series this year:

- JAN I give You ME
- FEB My life
- MAR My thoughts
- APR 24/7
- MAY Every beat of my heart
- JUN My skill
- JUL My talent
- AUG My good and my bad
- SEP My strengths and my weaknesses
- OCT I give to You now
- NOV Daily
- DEC Anything held back

When I look at the prayer that we prayed, I see this orderly method of presenting everything that makes me, ME or makes you, YOU.

I give You ME. There is really no unusual meaning to the word ME, but it contains so much! ME is the 50th most commonly used word in the English language. And it means "me." Just me. Not you. I can't give YOU as a gift to Jesus. I can only give me to Jesus. This is simple but the basic truth. You have to give Him what is YOU.

Jesus never asked anyone in the Bible to give Him more than they had in their hands or to bring themselves to Him as more than they were. Peter wasn't asked to change from being a fisherman, but after coming to Jesus he became a fisher of men [people]. Matthew wasn't asked to change from a tax collector to follow Jesus, but he became a collector of stories about Jesus and he wrote the book of Matthew!

It's only when we give Him our simplest selves, that He can make us His own. He can put His own stamp of likeness on me, when I give Him the real Kellie. He knows me inside and out, so there is no pretending with Jesus.

He loves us just the way we are. When we give ourselves to Him, He fills us with Himself and who we are becomes even greater. Why try so hard to be greater on our own? Imagine how difficult it would be to be perfect every day, or to make ourselves into what we think He wants, so He will love us or use us.

Can you hear Jesus laughing? He doesn't need our perfection. We need HIS! And this is His plan: You give Him you, I give Him me—as we are. He's got all the right stuff to put in us. This is when HE can be the special ingredient that makes us "EXTRA" ordinary and puts the "SUPER" in our Superkid day.

So, let's say this every morning, Superkids:

"Jesus, I give You the real-deal ME. I won't pretend to be perfect or hide who I really am from You. I won't focus on what anyone else does, but I will keep my eyes on You and I will let You live big inside of me. Me and You, Jesus, let's do this day!"

Now THAT'S extraordinary! ❤️

So here we are at the start of a fresh, new year, like beginning a drawing on a blank piece of paper. Like knowing what you want to draw, you know you want to give yourself fully to Jesus. What is the first line your hand should draw? Where do you start when presenting yourself to Him?
