WHEN ANGELS SHOW UP

Do you know that you have an angel with you all the time? If you're like most of us, you've never physically seen him, and you probably never will this side of heaven. In fact, you may be totally unaware of his existence. But he's there nonetheless, and he has been all of your life.

Jesus said so in Matthew 18:10. Warning His disciples never to despise or be dismissive of little children, He said, "Their angels do always behold the face of my Father which is in heaven." According to that statement, every child, when they're born, has an angel assigned to them; and though you may not be a child anymore, you didn't lose your angel just because you grew up.

You also didn't lose your angel if you spent some years like I did, running from God and living in sin. On the contrary! Your angel probably worked extremely hard during those years. He had to keep you from getting killed doing something stupid, so you could stay alive long enough to get born again.

Now that you are born again, your angel's assignment is to help you fulfill the call of God on your life. When necessary, he can call in additional assistance. So, as your ministry or business grows and there's more to be done, you're likely to have at your disposal more angelic help.

There's certainly plenty of it available. According to the Scriptures, angels number in the trillions and they are "all ministering spirits, sent forth to minister for them who shall be heirs of salvation" (Hebrews 1:14).

I remember years ago, when I was first becoming aware of this, I was preaching in a small church in Beaumont, Texas. One of the men who came to the meetings was from a denominational background, and during the first few services he sat right on the front row, just eating up the Word of Faith. Then, he abruptly stopped coming.

After not showing up for a few days, he came

P POINTS TO GET YOU THERE:

1

Every child born has an angel assigned to them. (Matt. 18:10)

2

As your ministry or business grows, your angel may call in additional angels to help get everything done. (Heb. 1:14)

3

God assigned an angel to the Israelites, to protect and help them. (Ex. 23:20)

4

When Judah was under enemy attack, God's people opened the door for their angels to win the battle for them, by praising and worshipping God. (2 Chron. 20:21)

Judah's angels did such a good job waging war against the nation's enemies that all the people had to do was stand and watch. (2 Chron. 20:22)

back again to one of the morning services, but he sat on the very back row, right next to the door. Curious, I kept my eye on him as I preached. At one point in the service, I saw his jaw suddenly drop as if he'd seen something shocking. He looked as startled as if someone had slapped him in the face with a wet rag.

After the service, he asked me to lunch and told me what had happened. It turned out he had quit coming to the services because I had said something that upended his theology and made him mad. He told The LORD he didn't want to hear me anymore and intended for that to be the end of the matter. But The LORD kept telling him to give me another hearing, so he finally did.

“Brother Kenneth,” he said, “when I walked into the service this morning, I was mad at you and mad at God. But while you were preaching, He opened my eyes to the spirit realm and what I saw astonished me.

“The biggest fellow I've ever seen in my life was standing right next to you. All dressed in white, he looked like Mr. Clean, on the commercial. He followed you around so closely it looked like the two of you were stuck together. Sometimes while you were preaching, you'd settle down a little bit. Then, he'd lean over and whisper something in your ear, and you'd just take off.

“Who in the world do you reckon he is, Brother Copeland?”

“He's my angel!” I said.

Something To Work With

Recently, The LORD reminded me of this experience and said we, as believers, need to become more aware of our angels. We need to study what the Bible says about how powerful they are, what they can do for us, and how we can open the door for them to do it.

One passage of Scripture from which we can learn a lot about these things is 2 Chronicles 20. It speaks of a time the nation of Judah found itself in desperate need of angelic help. Jehoshaphat, Judah's king, had received word that the nation's enemies—the Moabites and Ammonites (plus some others)— had joined forces and were poised to attack. Militarily, Judah didn't stand a chance. Vastly outnumbered, without supernatural help they were sure to be destroyed.

So Judah gathered together to ask help from the LORD; and.... Jehoshaphat stood in the assembly of Judah and Jerusalem, in the house of the LORD...and said: “O LORD God of our fathers, are You not God in heaven, and do You not rule over all the kingdoms of the nations, and in Your hand is there not power and might, so that no one is able to withstand You? Are You not our God, who drove out the inhabitants of this land before Your people Israel, and gave it to the descendants of Abraham Your friend forever? And they dwell in it...saying, ‘If disaster comes upon us—sword, judgment, pestilence, or famine—we will stand before this temple and in Your presence (for Your name is in this temple), and cry out to You in our affliction, and You will hear and save’” (verses 4-9, New King James Version).

Notice first what Jehoshaphat did not do in that situation. He did not start his prayer by bawling and squalling and saying, “Oh God, we're all going to die!” No, he started his prayer by quoting God's WORD. He began by bringing to remembrance Judah's covenant with Him and said, “LORD, You will hear and save.”

Those are words of faith.

Faith-filled words dominate the laws of sin and death! Fear-filled words, on the other hand, enable the laws of sin and death. So, obviously, Jehoshaphat chose his words wisely. Although he felt feelings of fear (verse 3) he didn't give voice to them. Instead, he stood on God's WORD and spoke by faith.

If we want God to move supernaturally in our lives—through our angel or some other way—we must do the same! Otherwise, He won't be able to do much for us.

The LORD drove home that point to me years ago when I was struggling with pain in my back. One day as I was walking on the treadmill, really hurting, I hollered, “Jesus, how long am I going to have to put up with this?”

Until you give Me something to work with! He replied.

I realized then that I'd let the pain get in my mouth. I'd been talking about what the devil was doing rather than declaring The WORD of God.

Thankfully, Jehoshaphat didn't make that mistake. He gave God words of faith with which to work and then he put his dependence completely on God. He cast the care of the situation over on Him and said, "O our God...we have no power against this great multitude that is coming against us; nor do we know what to do, but our eyes are upon You" (verse 12, NKJV).

What happened then? The Spirit of The LORD came on Zechariah, one of the prophets in Judah, and gave Jehoshaphat and his people these very detailed instructions:

Be not afraid nor dismayed by reason of this great multitude; for the battle is not yours, but God's. To morrow go ye down against them...ye shall find them at the end of the brook, before the wilderness of Jeruel. Ye shall not need to fight in this battle: set yourselves, stand ye still, and see the salvation of the LORD with you, O Judah and Jerusalem: fear not, nor be dismayed; to morrow go out against them: for the LORD will be with you (verses 15-17).

Way To Go, Boys!

How did the people of Judah respond to those instructions? They didn't do what Christians today sometimes do. They didn't wring their hands and wonder if God was really going to come through for them. No, they started "worshipping the LORD." They "stood up to praise the LORD God of Israel with a loud voice on high" (verses 18-19).

What's more, the next morning as they marched into battle, they kept that praise going. They "appointed singers unto the LORD" to go "out before the army, and to say, Praise the LORD; for his mercy endureth for ever" (verse 21).

For years, I thought Jehoshaphat came up with the idea of appointing those singers. But he didn't. It was the people's idea—and it was a good one! For as they began to sing and praise, "The LORD set ambushments against" their enemies. "And when Judah came...they looked unto the multitude, and, behold, they were dead bodies fallen to the earth, and none escaped" (verses 22, 24).

Wow! Talk about a massive victory! Judah's angels completely wiped their enemies out. Not one soldier was left alive.

"But Brother Copeland," you might say, "those verses don't say anything about angels."

They don't have to. The fact that the Israelites had been supplied by God with angelic protection had already been established. When the Israelites first came out of Egypt, The LORD said to them, "Behold, I send an Angel before thee, to keep thee in the way, and to bring thee into the place which I have prepared" (Exodus 23:20).

Just as our angels call for additional troops if they're needed, in this fight against the Ammonites and Moabites, the angel assigned

HE WILL LEAD YOU

"This I say then,
Walk in the Spirit,
and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh."

Galatians 5:16

Walking in the spirit. That's the key to overcoming the flesh. If you follow the promptings of the Spirit of God within you, you won't be dominated by the pressure your flesh tries to put on you.

As you listen to the written Word and the Holy Spirit telling you what to do, you'll constantly be making little adjustments in your life according to what He says. And those little adjustments will keep darkness from overtaking you.

You see, God knows just what you need. He can look ahead in your life and see the traps and pressures the devil is laying for you. So follow the Holy Spirit's leading and He will maneuver you safely around them to victory. 🕊

The Protection of Angels

From Old Testament times until now, angels have been on the job protecting and delivering God's people. Find out what puts these special agents of God into action.

to Judah obviously deployed some more angelic warriors. They did their job so thoroughly that all the people of Judah had to do was watch and say, "Way to go, boys! Praise God!"

Afterward, when Jehoshaphat and his people came to gather the spoils, they found "in abundance both riches...and precious jewels, which they stripped off for themselves, more than they could carry away" (2 Chronicles 20:25). Think of it! Those enemy soldiers had taken all those riches with them to war. The only reason they'd do that, as far as I can figure, is because Judah's angels talked to them. "Guys, you'd better take your money with you into this battle," they whispered. "If you leave it at home, someone will steal it before you get back."

Do angels still do those kinds of things?

Yes! I could give you one example after another of angels intervening in the lives of God's people today.

One that particularly stands out in my mind involved a believer in Nigeria. A member of Bishop David Oyedepo's church, he lived in a house that had been built on church property. Because of the dangers in that nation, the church property is surrounded by barbed wire and walls designed to keep the bad guys out. Somehow, though, one of them got in anyway and made it to this believer's front porch.

Just as the bad guy was about to break in the house, however, he felt something cut him. Realizing he was bleeding, he looked around to see his attacker—but no one was there. When he got cut again, he decided to get out of there and took off running. But he left a trail of blood behind him, so he got caught.

What's the explanation? That believer's angel did his job. He had something to work with because the man he was assigned to was a man of faith who spent time worshipping and praising God. I know because Bishop Oyedepo's church is famous for that. The members praise and dance before The LORD for hours sometimes. So, when bad guys show up on their property, their angelic security system works.

Another man I know, who serves in ministry under Bishop Oyedepo at Winner's Chapel, experienced a different kind of angelic intervention. His elbow had been shattered by a gunshot when he was a young man, and the doctors had replaced it with a device that left him in excruciating pain. Busy with ministry, he didn't have much time to think or pray about it, but as he went to bed one night, he heard The LORD say, in his spirit, You've been working for Me. Tonight, I'm going to work for you.

The next morning when this young minister woke up, he had a brand-new elbow, and the device the doctors had implanted was lying next to him on the bed. I saw a picture of it and the serial number on it was still visible. The Great Physician's angel assistants had performed a perfect operation. There was no blood. No incision. Just a job well done.

Another instance where angels showed up happened a little closer to home, early in our ministry here in Fort Worth. Gloria and I were attending Grace Temple at the time, and a kid broke into the church and stole the sound equipment. So, Pastors Harold and Lou Nichols called Gloria and me to get together with them to pray about the situation.

We declared The WORD, praised God and took authority. "In the Name of The LORD Jesus Christ, satan, you get that property back here," we said. "Ministering spirits, you know where that thief is. Go tend to him."

Shortly thereafter, the thief turned himself in to the police. The angels had apparently scared him straight. "Get that church's stuff out of my house!" he said.

Your angel will do the same kind of thing for you. So become more aware of him. Believe that, as Hebrews 1:14 says, your angel is always there to minister for you. Then make sure you give him something to work with. Speak faith-filled words and spend plenty of time praising and worshipping God like Jehoshaphat and the people of Judah did.

Say this right now: "If Jehoshaphat could speak words of faith, I can too! If the people of Judah could give over-the-top praise and worship to God, I can too. From this time on, I will be a praise-er. I will expect my angel to be working for me all the time!" 🙏

Be Fruitful

You have a gift; something God can use to impact this world for His glory. That gift is as unique as your fingerprints.

Think about that! Every person since Adam has fingerprints that are one of a kind, and it's the same for gifts and callings. You are qualified to use the gifts and callings God has placed in you, to be fruitful for His glory and for the world, in a way that no one else can.

I'm reminded of Dr. Booker T. Washington, an author, an educator and an ex-slave. In 1885, he founded what is now known as the historically black college Tuskegee University in Alabama. The first classes of the school, which at the time was called Tuskegee Normal, were held in a church building that had a leaky ceiling. Washington literally had to hold an umbrella over his head while he ate because it was the only protection he had from the elements.

In his book Sowing and Reaping, Washington shared how the lessons and principles he'd learned from the Bible had affected his life and work. And in 1905, he was responsible for turning out more self-made millionaires than Harvard, Yale and Princeton all combined. This ex-slave, who had every reason not to succeed, used biblical principles to impact the world. And we're still feeling the effects of his contribution. Washington's gift transformed broken lives into fruitful men and women with indispensable skills and undeniable value. It made room for him and brought him before great men (Proverbs 18:16).

Learn online

That just goes to show how God can use us to fulfill His purposes and plans, if we'll only put His Word to work and be fruitful.

Miracle-Working Abilities

We're living in a time that's different than any other time in history. God is raising up new leaders for new challenges that are coming on the horizon. He's doing new things and introducing new ideas and plans into the earth. The question is: Are we going to allow Him to use us to accomplish His purposes?

He has given us everything we need. Acts 1:8, New King James Version, says, "You shall receive power...." The word power in that verse means "miracle-working abilities." We see God's miracle-working abilities from the very beginning of Creation, and in His covenant with Abraham and the Israelites. God decided what He wanted and then spoke to what He wanted it to come from. Look at Isaiah 51:1-3, 16:

Hearken to me, ye that follow after righteousness, ye that seek the LORD: look unto the rock whence ye are hewn, and to the hole of the pit whence ye are digged. Look unto Abraham your father, and to Sarah that bare you: for I called him alone, and blessed him, and increased him. For the LORD shall comfort Zion: he will comfort all her waste places; and he will make her wilderness like Eden, and her desert like the garden of the LORD; joy and gladness shall be found therein, thanksgiving, and the voice of melody.... And I have put my words in thy mouth, and I have covered thee in the shadow of mine hand, that I may plant the heavens, and lay the foundations of the earth, and say unto Zion, Thou art my people.

We learn a couple of things from this passage. First, every seemingly "new" thought or idea—even the calling of the nation of Israel—that God speaks into the world was accomplished in the spirit first. Second, God speaks that idea or thought into existence either directly or through His people.

I've experienced this firsthand. God spoke to me to start a business school, something I didn't have any experience with. I'd never done anything like it before. That didn't matter, though, because whatever He tells us to do, the anointing to do it comes along with the calling. Today, the fully accredited Joseph Business School is now on five continents.

The school isn't successful because of my ability. It's successful because of God. I joined with His Anointing, and He worked through me.

A lot of people want to take credit for new ideas, but that's pride. Job 32:8, Amplified Bible, Classic Edition, says, "But there is [a vital force] a spirit [of intelligence] in man, and the breath of the Almighty gives men understanding." Only God deserves the credit for His original thoughts—not us! You and I were not made to create original thoughts. We're made to receive God's thoughts. The thoughts belong to God. We're created to receive and live out or fulfill those thoughts.

We read an example of this in Genesis 37 regarding Joseph. God spoke His thoughts to Joseph through a dream. God had a plan to do something new, and He chose Joseph as the person He wanted that plan to come through. And His Word came to pass.

God's Creative Word

Time and again in Scripture, we read of the power of God's creative Word. We see how God created with His Word and how He calls His people to use His Word to bring about His plans.

In Genesis 1, for example, we learn that God spoke creation into existence. God then, in turn, gave Adam words to speak to manage the earth. Adam used God's words to fulfill the Lord's plans for the earth.

Ninety-nine percent of what Jesus did was accomplished with words, too. Look at Mark 1:40-41: "And there came a leper to him, beseeching him, and kneeling down to him, and saying unto him, If thou wilt, thou canst make me clean. And Jesus, moved with compassion, put forth his hand, and touched him, and saith unto him, I will; be thou clean" (emphasis added).

Yes, Jesus touched the leper, but He also spoke to him. It was Jesus' spoken words that brought results.

Sow the Word

Of course, the enemy is going to work overtime to try to prevent God's Word from fulfilling its intended purpose. Mark 4:14-15 says, "The sower soweth the word. And these are they by the way side, where the word is sown; but when they have heard, Satan cometh immediately, and taketh away the word that was sown in their hearts."

What does the enemy come to steal? The Word we are sowing. When does he come to steal it? Immediately. The enemy's desire is to get that seed up, so you won't believe it. He knows if you believe the Word, it's going to release virtue that's going to cause a performance of what was promised. It's going to come to pass!

Mary is an example of someone who believed the Word and the result was the birth of Jesus and the fulfillment of the Messiah's arrival.

"And the angel answered and said unto her, The Holy Ghost shall come upon thee, and the power of the Highest shall overshadow thee: therefore also that holy thing which shall be born of thee shall be called the Son of God.... For with God nothing shall be impossible. And Mary said, Behold the handmaid of the Lord; be it unto me according to thy word. And the angel departed from her" (Luke 1:35-38).

When we believe the Word and the promises of God, like Mary did, God's virtue is released to provoke the performance of what He promised. The result is revolutionary.

A Command From the Beginning

At the beginning of Creation, God told Adam and Eve to "be fruitful, and multiply" (Genesis 1:28). That command was about far more than procreation. It was also for the birth of God's ideas and plans in the earth. He spoke creation into existence. He spoke Israel into existence. He spoke Jesus' birth into existence. He speaks, and we respond. All Bible-believing, faith-talking believers should align their wills, thoughts and words to agree with what God speaks. The result affects this world for His glory. Every time.

If God can use ex-slaves, He can use any one of us. The God we serve gave Booker T. Washington a way to educate ex-slaves. He gave me a way to create a business school that is reaching people and changing nations, and He's not finished.

Through Him, right now, my ministry is teaching business principles to those in the inner city and bringing digital technology training to those on house arrest. We are also turning jails into boarding schools. When I first said that, no one thought anything about it. So I kept saying it, again and again.

The Lord reminded me of Job 22:28: "Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways." The next thing I knew, the sheriff was calling to ask if our church could bring financial literacy into the jails. We started teaching the Word of God, water baptizing inmates in the prison, and teaching them leadership skills. Next thing I know, I was invited to the White House to join a briefing with the president on prison reform and to share our success in bringing education and job readiness to those behind the walls. That is fruitfulness!

I want you to join me in this adventure. This is your season. This is your moment. This is your hour. Don't miss it. Get your pencil and paper and put it by your nightstand when you go to bed, because God is about to download new ideas to you. He wants to dispense goods and blessings to this world.

Like He said in Genesis 12:2 (NKJV), "I will bless you and make your name great; and you shall be a blessing." That's what it is to be fruitful. 🍷

Live a Holy Life

Your body is not your own. Therefore what you do with it is not solely up to you. You've been bought with a price. You've been paid for by the sacrifice of the Son of God. Your body belongs to God. It is the temple of the Holy Spirit (1 Corinthians 6:19). The Amplified Bible says it is the sanctuary of the Holy Spirit.

God gave us this gift of the Holy Spirit to help us live separated unto Him—to walk in holiness. It is the Holy Spirit within you who prompts you to do the will of God.

What would you expect if you received a spirit of unbelief? What would you expect that spirit to promote? Unbelief. If you received a spirit of lust, what would you expect that spirit to promote? Lust.

You haven't been given the spirit of unbelief or lust. You have been given the Holy Spirit of God Himself. God's own holiness. His own Spirit came into us when we were born again. To do what? To promote holiness and separation of our lives, our hearts, our very lifestyles and every action unto God.

Some people say not doing certain things will make you holy...like you can't wear certain clothes, you can't wear your hairstyle a certain way, or you can't wear makeup, and so on. None of those things will make you holy. They all only affect the outer man. Those kinds of things are of the Law, and the Law won't make you holy.

Only God's Spirit will make you holy. Our being united to the Lord in such a way that the Holy Spirit of God is leading us, guiding us and directing us in life is holiness. God loves you. He paid a high price for you. So glorify Him in your body. Honor Him with your lifestyle. Obey the promptings of the Spirit of God within you. Choose to live a holy life.

What To Do When...

You Want To Tell Someone About Jesus

Commander
Kellie's Corner

First of all, let me say this is the best “what to do” yet. Telling people about Jesus is one of the greatest joys of life. Not only is it something Jesus asked us, as believers, to do, it is one of the most rewarding and fun parts of life!

My Jesus, Your Jesus

The first key to sharing Jesus is to realize how much WE love and need Him. How can we share this gift with others and not realize that we are offering them a special life with a Friend like no other? He's done so much for me! How about you? Let's take a minute to think about how much He blesses us every day. Has He healed you, helped you when you were in trouble, comforted you when you were hurting? He has done all that for me and more, many times over! We could talk a long time about how much Jesus blesses us every day!

Our Best Friend

Thinking about how good He is helps us share Jesus in the most positive way. Sometimes people try to scare others into salvation by only warning them about going to hell. Even though it's true that people need to know Jesus to go to heaven, that doesn't really introduce them to Him and His love. How sad for someone to come to know Jesus as a ticket to heaven and not really get to meet our Best Friend—Jesus!

What Jesus Did for Us

Let's make introducing Jesus—our Healer, Friend, Advisor and Shepherd—our first priority. Heaven is made for ALL people, but the Lord won't make them choose to follow Him. If people turn Him away, they won't get into heaven when they die, and that's not what He wants for anyone. God the Father sent Jesus to become human like us, live perfectly as a man, and go to the cross, bearing the punishment of sin (the penalty for sin is death) for all people who would ever live. And that's what He did! He gave His life out of love for all humans, including me, you and the person you are sharing Him with. This is true love! John 3:16, New Living Translation, says, “For this is how God loved the world: He gave his one and only Son, so that everyone who believes in him will not perish but have eternal life.”

When we accept Him as our Savior, heaven records that the penalty for our sin was paid. We are instantly made clean with His righteousness.

First Peter 2:24-25, The Passion Translation, says, “He himself carried our sins in his body on the cross so that we would be dead to sin and live for righteousness. Our instant healing flowed from his wounding. You were like sheep that continually wandered away, but now you have returned to the true Shepherd of your lives—the kind Guardian who lovingly watches over your souls.”

Wow! Isn't He amazing? Superkid, if you have never asked Jesus into your heart, now is the time! It's so easy and you can pray this for yourself as we learn these easy ABCs of salvation. Take the time to turn in your Bible and read these important scriptures.

ABCs of Salvation

Admit you need a Savior.

Romans 3:10, 23

Romans 5:8

Romans 6:23

Believe that Jesus died on the cross and rose again.

Romans 14:9

Confess that Jesus is now your Lord.

Romans 10:9

Superkid, pray this prayer with me: “Father God, I need You. I ask You to forgive me of sin. I believe Jesus died on the cross for me and rose again. Jesus, come into my heart. I make You the Lord of my life. I will listen to You and follow You as You lead me and guide me with Your peace. Amen.”

Yay, Superkid! Not only are you filled with Jesus, you are ready to lead others to Him and to the ABCs of life with Jesus.

Ask the Father to forgive you anytime you do or say something that is a sin. He forgives you right away. (1 John 1:9)

Because you have become a child of God! (John 1:12)

Commit to follow Him and call upon His Name. (John 10:4, 27; Romans 10:13)

Best decision ever, Superkid! Remember this as you tell people about our Jesus: Have NO FEAR—the perfect love of Jesus loving others through you will cast out fear. He is right there with you loving them. If they need healing, lay hands on them first, so they can experience how good He is!

Lastly, remember that this is what we are called to do. Mark 16:15-16, NLT, says, “And then he told them, ‘Go into all the world and preach the Good News to everyone. Anyone who believes and is baptized will be saved. But anyone who refuses to believe will be condemned.’” He goes on to say that miraculous signs (like healing!) will go with you, so what do you do when you want to tell someone about Jesus?

TESTIMONIES OF REAL-LIFE VICTORY

'Excited To Be a Partner'

I am excited to be a Partner with KCM Canada. I listen to Kenneth and the team daily and am building my faith in leaps and bounds. I have been healed twice from learning to stand on the Word—it works! Blessings to you all.

H.B. | Canada

'Hooked On From Faith to Faith'

I was in prison and did both an eight-year and a 15-year sentence. That is where I got hooked on From Faith to Faith. I've been out of prison going on four years and I've been reading my Faith to Faith book daily—it helps me to walk closer to God each day. I'm also walking in victory in God's love. G.J. | Texas

All Honor and Glory to God

After I submitted my prayer request through the KCM app, you sent a prayer response and stood with me in spirit. My husband got a job after a year and two months of being unemployed. My workplace contract was renewed and extended. I give God all the honor and the glory.

K. | South Africa

Helpful Resources

I'm so thankful for the resources you have sent me. Simple Stress Relief Through Thanksgiving and Praise helped me during the holiday season last year; it's a teaching I will listen to over and over. I'm applying Family Promises to my life and believe this collection of scriptures will be very useful. God bless you! L.H. | Texas

Debt Free—and More!

Paying off our mortgage seemed to be a never-ending story. For more than a year, I watched your series on increasing your faith, bulldog faith and believing for a house. In 2020, I decided to believe God to be debt free before the end of the year. Each month, my husband and I called in money from our heavenly account to pay off the $40,000 debt.

In November, a couple bought our property—we had tried to sell it for almost three years for an amount that was twice as much as usual. We believed the Lord would send us the right man for whom this property is worth it—and He did! December 2020, we canceled not only our debt, we even made a surplus.

G.K. | Australia

Learning To Reap

In the BVOV magazine, Pastor George shared about reaping our harvest and about Keith Moore's CD series Rules of Reaping. I ordered the series from his ministry and have been applying what Pastor George wrote as well as the wisdom in the CDs. In February, I learned that an installment loan I had was canceled!

“Keep your heart full of THE WORD because out of the heart are the forces or issues necessary to live this life successfully.”

—Kenneth Copeland

Bless your ministry and your obedience. We love being EMIC 'eMembers' and KCM Partners.

J.C. | California

'COVID Free!'

My 83-year-old cousin had COVID and was in the hospital for two months. Twice, the doctors told the family she would not make it through the night. I called your prayer line; she is home now and COVID free! Thank you!

M.D. | Duncanville, Texas

Surprise Increase

In 2019 I got a call from KCM asking if you could agree with me in prayer. I thought of my finances, severely strained while living on a Social Security check and maintaining a property after my mother's death. We agreed in prayer for financial increase according to God's Word.

I had just been miraculously reconciled to a prosperous cousin and his family—I had not talked to him in years. We had many interactions and he helped me with some much-needed home projects. In January 2020, he said he wanted to gift me with $1,000 per month!

I am now debt free, can form a stable budget and can give more into ministry. Since my income has nearly doubled, I am doubling my KCM Partner offering.

Many thanks for all your prayers and for the broadcast CDs that help build my faith. They are a treasure.

M.P. | New York

Receiving Abundant Life

I have been watching Jeremy Pearsons this week and have learned so much more about how to receive the abundant life and am excited to study until I get it completely. God is so good, isn't He? God bless Jeremy and his ministry.

'A Breath of Fresh Air'

After COVID-19 and the last election, I experienced fear and confusion while listening to the news, and felt like God asked me to stop watching. A friend suggested that I watch

VICTORY News. What a breath of fresh air. I especially want to thank Greg Stephens for sharing about the shooting at an Amish School in Lancaster County, Pa. I live in Lancaster County so I remember how the Amish reacted—it was an unbelievable act of forgiveness. Forgiveness is always the way.

B.A. | New Holland, Pa.

SALVATION PRAYER

If you do not know Jesus as your Saviour and Lord, simply pray the following prayer in faith, and Jesus will be your Lord!

Heavenly Father, I come to You in the Name of Jesus. Your Word says, "Whosoever shall call on the name of the Lord shall be saved" and "If thou shalt confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart that God hath raised him from the dead, thou shalt be saved" (Acts 2:21; Romans 10:9). You said my salvation would be the result of Your Holy Spirit giving me new birth by coming to live in me (John 3:5-6, 15-16; Romans 8:9-11) and that if I would ask, You would fill me with Your Spirit and give me the ability to speak with other tongues (Luke 11:13; Acts 2:4).

I take You at Your Word. I confess that Jesus is Lord. And I believe in my heart that You raised Him from the dead. Thank You for coming into my heart, for giving me Your Holy Spirit as You have promised, and for being Lord over my life. Amen.

Receiving the BLESSING

Bonnie O'Neill stared out the window of the Massanutten Ski Resort in Virginia. Sleet battered the glass. The slopes had turned to ice. So much for the rest of their skiing holiday. Bonnie and a friend had come earlier in the week and enjoyed skiing. Now Friday, their husbands were due to join them for the weekend.

Bonnie didn't enjoy being sedentary. She loved all sports. She danced, and even flew single engine planes. She had also taken care of her invalid mother for years.

"Why don't we go for a swim and then use the gym?" her friend suggested.

"That's a great idea!"

Afterward, her friend asked if she'd ever played racquetball.

"No," Bonnie replied, "but I'm a fast learner if you tell me what to do."

They got racquets and entered the court.

"OK," her friend explained, "I'm going to serve. As soon as the ball comes to you, just slam it."

She served the ball, and Bonnie slammed it back. As her friend hit the ball against the wall, Bonnie turned toward it.

The ball hit Bonnie between the eyes. She crumpled to her knees in excruciating pain.

"Are you all right?" her friend yelled, running to Bonnie.

Not wanting to admit the severity of her pain, Bonnie said, "I'll be fine, but I don't think I can do this any longer."

Their husbands arrived that night and by the next morning, Bonnie woke with extreme pain in her neck. When Auston, her husband, asked how she was doing, Bonnie admitted that she was in too much pain to stay.

Back home, Auston took Bonnie to the emergency room where she was diagnosed with whiplash. They prescribed Percocet and sent her home.

Two days later, she couldn't move at all without great pain. She went to see a doctor who was also a friend.

"A cortisone shot usually helps with this," he said.

By the time he finished injecting the shot into her neck, Bonnie was on the floor screaming.

By now, she was in so much pain she couldn't work.

That was in 2003. For the next 10 years, Bonnie's condition continued to deteriorate. By 2013, she was on 20 prescription medications a day, used a walker and carried around oxygen. She couldn't walk more than 15 minutes at a time. Auston had to bathe and dress her each day.

Bonnie had gone to four of the top surgeons in the area. Each one told her the same thing—that she definitely needed to have surgery. They each agreed that Bonnie's back and neck were in such bad shape that the surgery would trigger a domino-type collapse that would leave her confined to a wheelchair.

"If I were you, I'd just see a pain management specialist and live with it as long as possible before I had surgery," one doctor said.

One day in 2013, Auston came home and said, "Honey, I've got some bad news." Bonnie thought, How can things get worse?

"What's wrong?" she asked.

"I was just diagnosed with stage 4 prostate cancer. Honey, I don't know who'll take care of you now."

When Life Changed

"That moment was a wake-up call for me," Bonnie recalls. "I started remembering all the things the Lord had done for us, starting when I was 5 years old. My mother was only 4'6" tall, but she had a humongous heart and love for people. One day we drove past a huge tent on the side of the road. She said, 'Bonnie, let's go see what this is.' It happened to be an A.A. Allen revival meeting. We went inside and listened. At the end of the meeting, Mama went forward and accepted Jesus as her Savior and received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit.

"When we got home, she just bubbled with excitement telling my dad all about it. My father liked to drink. He never got angry or mean, but he liked to drink. It was the only thing they disagreed about. He said, 'Norma, you can go. I don't care what you believe, but I won't go. I don't want to be involved.'

"For the next couple of weeks, Mama and I went every night. One night we got ready to leave and the car wouldn't start. She told Daddy that if he'd drop us off, she'd find us a ride home. He dropped us off, and we thought he had left, but he hadn't.

"Daddy loved music, and he liked what he heard from the car. After we went into the tent, he slipped inside to listen to the music. That night, my father was saved, baptized in the Holy Spirit, and delivered from ever wanting alcohol or cigarettes again.

"After that, Mother told everyone she met about Jesus. My parents started traveling to hear ministers of faith. Within three months, we'd gone to hear Oral Roberts, A.A. Allen and Kathryn Kuhlman. We joined a Pentecostal church. Living in our house was like being in an electrical grid.

"One day Daddy bought me a new bed and took apart my old one to give away. When he found all the bubble gum I'd stuck under the railing, he said I had to help remove it. Daddy sat on the floor and put me between his legs. With his hand on mine, we used a big screwdriver to scrape that gum off. We had our mojo going. We were doing good.

"My mother called him from the kitchen. When she did, he turned around and loosed my hand. But the screwdriver was still in motion. Instead of hitting the rail, that screwdriver went all the way up my nose and planted itself in my forehead.

"My mother screamed and grabbed me. They pulled the screwdriver out and there was a huge hunk of fleshy tissue on the end. Blood gushed from the wound. There was so much blood on the floor that Daddy slipped in it and fell.

"We lived almost 40 minutes from the hospital. My parents knew I was bleeding to death. Mama had me in her lap in the rocking chair and they both started praying in tongues. They also talked to the Lord: 'You promised to meet our needs. You promised that You were our Healer. We need You!' They prayed in tongues and talked to God.

"As they prayed, I felt something like electricity flowing through my body. When that happened, the bleeding stopped instantly. It was like someone turned off a faucet. They wrapped me in a blanket and drove to the hospital. The doctor said it was a miracle that I lived.

"When I told Mama about the electricity, she explained that I felt the power of the Holy Spirit. That started my journey of getting to know God as my Father. I was raised in that atmosphere and among the giants of faith. How could I have gone from that to this?"

Healing the Sick

In 1974, Bonnie met Auston O'Neill, who had grown up in the Baptist church. He sat on the bench next to his mother while she played the piano. When he was 8, Auston accepted Jesus as his Savior. His dad, a baseball player, was invited to play for the New York Yankees. The following Sunday, he went to church and accepted Jesus. Afterward, he turned down an offer from the Yankees and left baseball. While Auston sang in the choir, and later became choir director, his dad dedicated his life to serving the Lord.

After Auston received the Baptism in the Holy Spirit, he and Bonnie joined a church that taught on the gifts of the Spirit. Auston's mother said, "This is just a fad. They'll get over it." However, it became known around town that when Auston and Bonnie laid hands on the sick, they got well and left the hospital. Before long, Auston's mother would say, "Sister so-and-so is in the hospital. Why don't you go pray for her?" Later, she would call and say, "Brother so-and-so is in the hospital. Would you go pray for him?"

Each time they prayed for the sick, they recovered.

While still dating, in 1975, Auston and Bonnie had heard about Kenneth and Gloria Copeland. They began what would become a lifelong habit of soaking up the teachings from KCM, starting with attending KCM meetings in places like Washington, D.C.; Pittsburgh; and North Carolina.

The House

The couple married in 1976. That same year, they became Partners with Kenneth Copeland Ministries. Together, they made a commitment to the Lord: "If we see something in Your Word, we'll do it." When they learned about tithing, they acted on it. When they read about deliverance, they got people delivered. More than anything, they learned to live by faith.

"We heard Kenneth tell the story of his children believing for a boat," Auston recalls. "They wrote a petition to God and put it on the refrigerator, thanking God for their boat every time they passed it. We figured if those kids could get their boat, we could believe for a house.

"We wrote a petition to God, which we posted on our refrigerator," Bonnie recalls. "We thanked Him for our house every time we passed the petition and many other times a day. We met a Christian realtor and told her what we wanted. She said she had no idea how we could get it. The only way she saw was if God opened doors."

One evening around 9 or 10, Auston and Bonnie were out looking at houses for sale when Auston saw a man step out of his car. "The Lord told me to talk to him," Auston recalls. "I said to our realtor who was driving, 'Stop the car! God wants me to talk to that man!'

"That house isn't even for sale,' our realtor said. 'Besides, it's too late at night.' But she stopped the car and we jumped out."

Auston and Bonnie walked over to the man and said, "Is your house for sale?"

"Wow," he replied, "I'm getting ready to put it on the market."

The realtor got out of the car and the three of them went inside the house.

It was everything they had asked God for in their petition.

"Can we write a contract on it?" Bonnie asked. "And would you consider a delayed settlement?"

"At this point," the man replied, "I'd consider anything."

The man agreed to a contract that stipulated Auston and Bonnie would make monthly payments, and that a certain amount of that money would go into escrow. At the end of one year, that money would go toward the purchase price. If at that time, Auston and Bonnie couldn't finalize the purchase, the money in escrow would go to the seller.

When it came time to close on the sale, Auston and Bonnie were short $10,000. The loan officer gave them a document to sign explaining where they would get the money. As directed by the Lord they wrote, "Auston and Bonnie O'Neill will receive $10,000 from Jehovah Jireh."

As the date for closing drew near, friends and family kept calling.

"Did you get the money?"

Each time they responded by saying, "We have it by faith."

Fifteen minutes before Auston and Bonnie were due to go to the closing, a friend called.

"I want to give you $10,000. Can I bring it to you?"

"Meet us there," Bonnie said.

"We got the house," Auston explains.

The Angel

"About six months later, I heard a noise like a freight train. I went outside and saw a tornado over us. I said, 'In the Name of Jesus, you go back up in the sky. You will not touch down. You will not tear up this neighborhood.’

“I looked around and saw the prettiest angel standing over our house. He had white flowing hair. He wore a crimson robe with a gold belt. He stood with his arms wide open. When I saw him, I started praising God.

“After the storm, there wasn’t so much as a leaf blown down in our yard. That tornado went up in the sky and moved beyond our neighborhood before touching down and tearing things up. Our property backed up to a forest. A giant tree had been pulled up by its roots. It was so large that the fire department had to cut it up because no one had a saw that big. We’d been believing God for firewood. That tree provided us with firewood for two years.”

During that time, Auston and Bonnie continued to soak up all the teachings by KCM. They exercised their faith in the Word. During those years, the Lord led them into various ministries. They started a musical group called The O’Neill Singers, and they began to minister to those incarcerated, to the homeless and at senior living centers. They led deliverances and preached the Word of God.

Finding the Answer

In 2015, they found themselves in California after traveling the nation for two years ministering to veterans. Bonnie’s health had continued to decline and Auston was being treated for prostate cancer and taking large doses of morphine each day. As usual, Bonnie began her day in prayer.

“You know, God,” she prayed, “for 13 years I’ve been believing to receive my healing. I don’t understand why I haven’t seen it. I tell everyone that by faith I’m healed. I tell them that You’re going to heal me. I tell them what Your Word says. We’ve been ministering for two years and we’ve seen miracle after miracle. We’ve seen the people we pray for healed. We’ve seen people get up out of wheelchairs. We’ve seen people delivered.

“What am I doing that’s causing healing not to manifest in my life? Where is the God of the 5-year-old little girl who needed You and You were there instantly?”

The gentlest voice Bonnie had ever heard echoed in her heart: You tie My hands.

Perplexed, Bonnie said, “Tell me how I tie Your hands.”

You come and pray at My throne room every morning. You lay your every care upon My throne, your every need. Then when you leave, you take them with you.

Bonnie saw a vision of a friend who called and asked how she was doing.

“Oh, it’s as usual,” Bonnie heard herself saying.

“I’ve got a massive headache.” Then she went through every pain and all her diagnoses.

As the call ended, she said, “But by faith, God is going to come through for me.”

Your healing will manifest when your words get in line with My prophecies and promises in the Bible, which I left for you. When you see yourself as I see you, when your spirit is aligned with My Spirit, then you’ll see the manifestation of your healing.

“It felt like someone had smacked me,” Bonnie remembers. “Yet, I felt a great relief in knowing what I had to do, and what I’d been doing wrong for the past 13 years. I’d become complacent in the Word. I believed every diagnosis spoken over me. My faith was attached to the wrong confession.

“My mouth was speaking sickness and death over myself. I kept talking about my fibromyalgia, my diabetes and my spinal stenosis. I claimed every single one of them. I kept them. I wouldn’t release them. The Lord asked me who I believed. Did I believe Him or the doctors’ reports? I realized salt water and fresh water both came out of my mouth.

“I told Auston what God had said. We repented and took our stand in faith. For 13 years I had suffered. Now, within a few days I realized I didn’t need my cane or walker. By the time we got back to Virginia, I was totally healed. I literally ran in and around the church. People were stunned, praising God. The last time they’d seen me, I could hardly walk with assistance.

“Auston and I went to the doctor, who confirmed that we were both totally healed. There was no cancer in Auston’s prostate or lymph nodes—no cancer in his body.”

That was 2015, and today both Auston and Bonnie are still praising God for the complete manifestation of their healings.

In 2016, they went on a mission trip to Egypt, Jordan, Israel and Africa. The following year, they befriended a pastor and his wife in Uganda. Partnering with their church, they bought property for the pastor and his wife to plant a church.

“For us, partnership with KCM means believing as they do. It means receiving the benefits of their ministry. It means giving and always being faithful to pray for them.”

In 2018, the Lord led Auston and Bonnie to a parcel of land. He said, This will be a home for My daughters brought out of sex trafficking. You will teach them about Me and how to receive what I have for them. Today, Auston and Bonnie are in negotiations to buy the property so that they, as the healed of the Lord, can minister the Father’s miraculous healing love to His precious daughters. 🕊

by Gloria
Copeland

It's not hard these days to figure out why the Bible tells believers not to be conformed to this world. All you have to do is look around and you can see:
This world is messed up!

Sometimes I can hardly believe how messed up it actually is. I hear about the ungodly ways people are behaving and the ridiculous things they're coming up with to try to solve society's problems and I wonder, What's wrong with them? Why would anyone think and act like that?

Born To Be VICTORIOUS

Then, of course, I remember: They're in the dark, that's why.

Their minds have been blinded by the god of this world, the devil (2 Corinthians 4:4). Everything in this world system is under his dominion. What it accepts as truth comes from him and he's the father of lies.

Talk about twisted! It's no wonder this world can't think straight. It's under the influence of the ultimate deceiver.

As a believer, however, you don't have to surrender to that influence. You don't have to live like the world does, in darkness, under the devil's thumb. You can walk in the light and live on this earth as more than a conqueror. You can reign as a king in life through Jesus Christ.

“For whatever is born of God is victorious over the world; and this is the victory that conquers the world, even our faith” (1 John 5:4, Amplified Bible, Classic Edition).

“Well,” you might say, “I certainly haven’t felt like much of a conqueror lately.”

Are you born of God?

If the answer is yes, then this verse is talking about you. You are victorious over the world!

The word victorious means “having conquered in battle or contest; having overcome an enemy or antagonist; conquering; vanquishing as a victorious general and victorious troops.” That’s an accurate description of who you are as a believer. You’re one of the victorious troops of your victorious General, the Lord Jesus Christ.

He completely conquered the devil, the world and the flesh; and when you put your faith in Him you inherit His victory. You were reborn in His image, united with Him, and you instantly became a victor. You may not have known right away how to walk in victory, but all the elements of it were born into you.

It’s like when you were born physically; you were born to walk, but you didn’t just immediately take off walking. You had to grow and learn to use the ability you were born with. In the same way, spiritually you were born an overcomer with God’s victorious nature and dominion on the inside of you. To operate in that dominion, you must learn some things. You must spend time in the Word of God and learn to think like He does.

Your renewed mind will cast off worldly ideas, habits and behaviors that have kept you in bondage.

If you don’t, you’ll continue to think like the world...which means you’ll keep talking and acting like the world...which means you’ll keep getting the world’s results. The world is under the curse, so everything it does results in corruption and destruction. That’s not what your heavenly Father wants for you!

He redeemed you from the curse so you can walk far above it in THE BLESSING, and He’s provided you with everything you need to do it. Not only has He multiplied His grace and peace to you, and to all of us, as believers, as 2 Peter 1 says: “His divine power hath given unto us all things that pertain unto life and godliness, through the knowledge of him that hath called us to glory and virtue: whereby are given unto us exceeding great and precious promises: that by these ye might be partakers of the divine nature, having escaped the corruption that is in the world through lust” (verses 3-4).

Yielding To the Flesh Is Dangerous

The word lust, as it’s used there, doesn’t just refer to sexual temptation. It includes all the carnal drives, passions and desires of the flesh. Those things are dangerous. The devil uses them to pressure people into advancing his evil agenda for their lives, and when yielded to, they bring destruction.

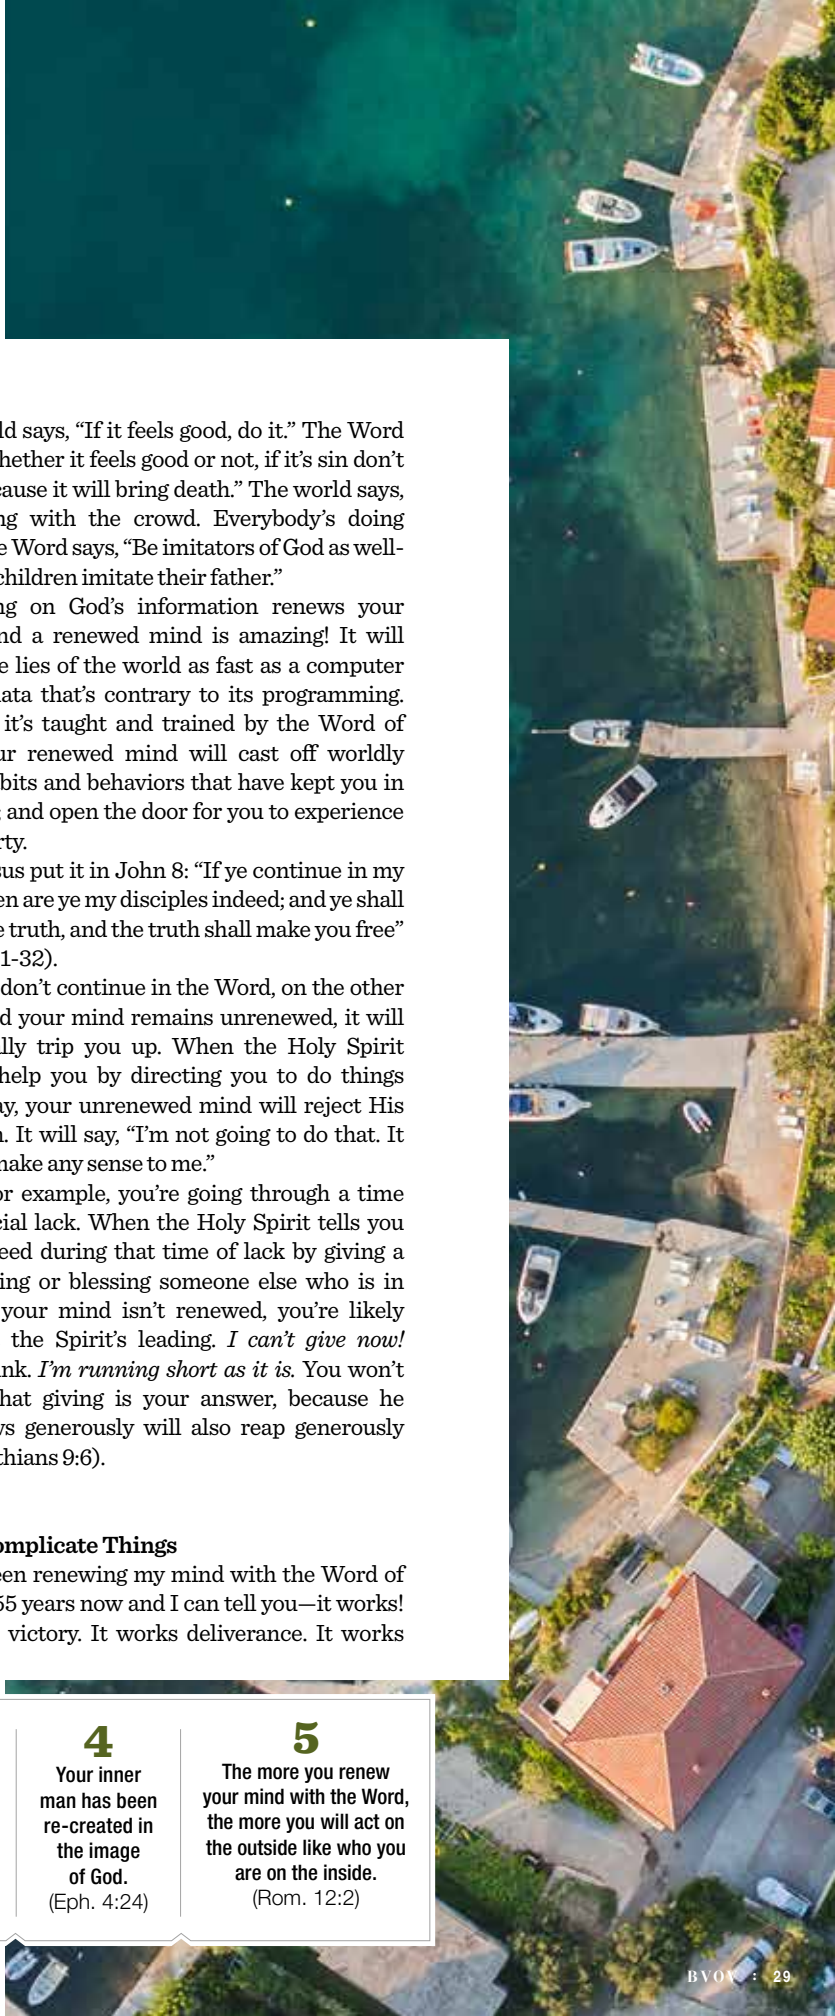

We, as God’s people, escape that destruction by bringing our souls and bodies into conformity with Him. We find out what His will is, put our faith in His power that’s at work in us, and live accordingly. Instead of yielding to carnal drives and passions, we yield to our reborn spirit and put into operation the principle revealed in Galatians 5:16: “Walk in the Spirit, and ye shall not fulfil the lust of the flesh.”

Not all Christians these days, however, have been taught to do this. On the contrary, they’ve been told that because New Covenant believers are not under the law, they can just do whatever their flesh wants. After all, indulging carnal passions and drives is just part of being human, so it's really no big deal.

“BOTTOM LINE, THE DECISION IS YOURS....

DO YOU WANT TO WALK WITH GOD IN VICTORY, OR TO BE OVERCOME BY THE WORLD?”

But it is a big deal! According to James 1, when a person is "drawn away of his own lust, and enticed...when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death" (verses 14-15). In other words, even for the believer, sin is deadly.

Sin won't keep you out of heaven, if you're truly born again, but it will shorten your time on earth. It will also rob you of the abundant life God intends for you to enjoy here. It will doom you to defeat and rob you of the victory that belongs to you in Christ.

What's more, living according to the flesh and yielding to sin is contrary to your identity as a believer. I'd even go so far as to say, it's hypocritical! A hypocrite is someone who pretends on the outside to be something he's not on the inside; and born-again believers aren't sinners on the inside. We're not inwardly like the world.

We live in this world, obviously, but Jesus said we aren't of the world any more than He is (John 17:16). We're of God. Our inner man has been created in His image, in righteousness and true holiness (Ephesians 4:24).

How do we go about letting the man on the inside of us come out? Romans 12:1-2 gives the answer: "Present your bodies a living sacrifice, holy, acceptable unto God, which is your reasonable service. And be not conformed to this world: but be ye transformed by the renewing of your mind, that ye may prove what is that good, and acceptable, and perfect, will of God."

According to W.E. Vine, the renewal of the mind is the adjustment of the moral and spiritual vision and thinking to the mind of God. It's the change that takes place in your soul when you feed on His Word. The soul conforms to whatever information it's fed—and the information in God's Word is vastly different from the world's information.

The world says, "Hey, do your own thing." The Word says, "Do all to the honor and glory of God."

The world says, "If it feels good, do it." The Word says, "Whether it feels good or not, if it's sin don't do it, because it will bring death." The world says, "Go along with the crowd. Everybody's doing this." The Word says, "Be imitators of God as well-beloved children imitate their father."

Feeding on God's information renews your mind—and a renewed mind is amazing! It will reject the lies of the world as fast as a computer rejects data that's contrary to its programming. Because it's taught and trained by the Word of God, your renewed mind will cast off worldly ideas, habits and behaviors that have kept you in bondage; and open the door for you to experience true liberty.

As Jesus put it in John 8: "If ye continue in my word, then are ye my disciples indeed; and ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free" (verses 31-32).

If you don't continue in the Word, on the other hand, and your mind remains unrenewed, it will continually trip you up. When the Holy Spirit tries to help you by directing you to do things God's way, your unrenewed mind will reject His direction. It will say, "I'm not going to do that. It doesn't make any sense to me."

Say, for example, you're going through a time of financial lack. When the Holy Spirit tells you to sow seed during that time of lack by giving a big offering or blessing someone else who is in need, if your mind isn't renewed, you're likely to resist the Spirit's leading. I can't give now! you'll think. I'm running short as it is. You won't realize that giving is your answer, because he who sows generously will also reap generously (2 Corinthians 9:6).

Don't Complicate Things

I've been renewing my mind with the Word of God for 55 years now and I can tell you—it works! It works victory. It works deliverance. It works when nothing else out there in the world is working. I can also tell you, though, that if you want the Word to work for you, it must be your standard. You must agree with what it says and reject everything that contradicts it. You must decide; I'm not going to change the Word to fit my lifestyle, I'm going to change my lifestyle to fit the Word.

"But Gloria, don't you think sometimes life is more complicated than that?"

No, I don't. That's one reason renewing my mind with God's Word has always been so easy for me. I'm just simple. I believe God is smarter than I am. I don't have to prove for myself by experience whether or not His Word is true. If He said it, it's true. So, I don't argue with Him. I simply put His thoughts into the computer of my mind, align my thinking with what He said, and bring my will into harmony with His.

The will is the part of the soul that turns thinking into action. It's the part of you that decides whether you're going to move toward God or away from Him. You got saved, for instance, as an act of your will. You heard the gospel and decided to believe on Jesus and confess Him as your Lord. You aligned your will with God's and all the devils in hell couldn't stop you from getting born again.

Your will conformed to the will of God is a mighty force! When it's faithfully fed and fortified daily with God's Word, it will keep you continually progressing in victory. It will prevent you from being blown around by the winds of the world and enable you to live as the conqueror you were born to be.

So, bottom line, the decision is yours. What do you want to do? Do you want to walk with God in victory, or to be overcome by the world?

Personally, I'm choosing to walk with God! I sampled what the world has to offer, before I got born again, and I didn't like it. I found out there was no peace or joy there; only distress, frustration and failure; desiring but never attaining.

When I got into the Word of God and learned to do things His way, however, I found out that in Him is everything good. I discovered that He sustains me, strengthens me, talks to me, teaches me, and as I renew my mind with His Word, He even transforms me, as He promises in Romans 12:2.

The Greek word translated transform in that verse is metamorphoo. It speaks of the kind of metamorphosis that transforms a caterpillar into a butterfly. That's the kind of change we, as believers, experience as we continue to fellowship with the Lord in the Word and by His Spirit. As 2 Corinthians 3:18 puts it: "We all, with open face beholding as in a glass" (or "[in the Word of God]" as the AMPC says) "the glory of the Lord, are changed into the same image from glory to glory, even as by the Spirit of the Lord."

Think about that! Not only are we born as victors, we're transformed by God's Word and His Spirit from glory to glory! Our victory is so sewn up that the devil and all his legions can't take it away from us.

This is a one-sided deal if you want to know the truth about it. Satan was stripped of all power and authority at Jesus' resurrection. He doesn't have anything left to use against us but his lies—and unlike the world, we don't have to believe those lies. The god of this world isn't our God.

We're born of the Almighty Creator of heaven and earth! He's wiped out all our sin, delivered us out of the kingdom of darkness, and translated us into His kingdom of light. He's re-created us in His own image in true righteousness and holiness, given us His written Word so we can renew our minds, and filled us with His own Holy Spirit. He didn't just send an angel to help us, He moved into us Himself. He came to live inside us so He could personally teach us and empower us with His own mighty power.

Satan doesn't stand a chance against you as a born-again believer! If he weren't so despicable, you might almost feel sorry for him. His only hope is that you don't find out what God's Word says or don't obey it, because once you do...

There's nothing left for you but overcoming.

There's nothing left for you but to go from glory to glory.

There's nothing left for you but to be more than a conqueror because you were born for victory!

MORE WAYS TO WATCH

Recall God's Mercies

"This I recall to my mind, therefore have I hope. It is of the LORD's mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning; great is thy faithfulness." Lamentations 3:21-23

God is faithful. He's full of compassion. His mercies are new every morning. As a believer, you know all that. But simply knowing it is not enough.

For it to do you any good, you have to recall it. You have to remember it again and again in order to rekindle your hope and stir up your faith.

So, make it a point to remind yourself of God's faithfulness every morning. Remind yourself of the benefits that are yours in Jesus.

What are those benefits?
Psalm 103 spells them out:

- 1 He forgives all your sins.
- 2 He heals all your diseases.
- 3 He redeems your life from destruction.
- 4 He crowns you with lovingkindness and tender mercies.
- 5 He satisfies your mouth with good things so that your youth is renewed like the eagle's.
- 6 He executes righteousness and judgment for you against oppression.
- 7 He sets you free.
- 8 He makes known His ways to you.
- 9 He gives you His grace and mercy in times of need.

Make it a point every morning to say those things out loud to The LORD. Stand before Him in prayer and recall His mercies to you. Keep it up and you'll be stronger in faith and more confident of God's love than you've ever been before.

Don't just settle for knowing God's BLESSINGS. Remember them every day and watch them come alive in you.
